PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

Last week, while I was out of the country attending to urgent business matters, former Manila Rotarian, Acting Department of Justice Secretary, Emmanuel L. ("Manny") Caparas, was also unable to attend our regular Thursday luncheon meeting as Guest of Honor and Speaker, as he also had to attend to urgent business matters. I understand that he sent his sincerest apologies around an hour and a half before last Thursday's luncheon meeting and advised that the President of the Republic of the Philippines called him to an emergency meeting at Malacañan Palace. Due to the circumstances, he did not have enough time to find one among his Undersecretaries to speak at our meeting on his behalf. I wish to thank and commend PE/VP Teddy Ocampo and Program Moderator Dir. Amading Valdez for managing the situation well by showing the video presentation of our trip to Barangay Hamod, Batad, Iloilo, for the formal turnover of our donation comprised of 30 housing units worth around Php4.5 Million, which we had constructed in cooperation with Gawad Kalinga, to certain residents of Barangay Hamod, Batad, Iloilo, who were victims of Typhoon Yolanda. I would also like to thank PD Jimmie Policarpio, who gave an impromptu fearless analysis of the 2016 political climate and elections at our last Thursday's luncheon meeting. I am sure that all Manila Rotarians who attended last week's Thursday luncheon meeting were not only well informed of our Club's activities, but were also informed of the current political situation existing in our country.

On news within our Club, last 16 April 2016, PP Boy Guevara and his wife, Monette, hosted a Thanksgiving Fellowship at their Ponderosa Leisure Farms estate in Tagaytay for the men of the Rotary Club of Manila and the ladies of the Inner Wheel Club of Manila. Manila Rotarians who were present, aside from host PP Boy, were DG/PP Obet Pagdanganan, DGND/CoS/PP Rudy Bediones, ISDG/AG/IPP Frank Evaristo, PP Archibart Bartolome, PP Boy Ampil, Dir. Susing Pineda, Dir. Amading Valdez, PD Jun Hallare, PD Knud Hedeager, PVP Lance Masters, DE/Treasurer Chito Zaladarriaga, Rtn. Nilo Aventura, Rtn. Gunter Matschuck, Rtn. Tong Payumo, and Rtn. Jun Bella.

On news from around the District, ICoS Cesar Ubaldo and IDCoS/ISDG/DE/IPS Albert Alday joined DGE Ernesto Yuyek in Ushiku, Ibaraki, Japan, for the District Conference of Rotary International District 2820 from 15-17 April 2016.

Today, let us welcome our Guest of Honor and Speaker, Ms. Mylene Lising, as we go back in time and delve on the rudiments of the prehistoric times. Ms. Lising will give us an informative and interesting talk on archaeology which, I hope, will not only be interesting to us, but will also stimulate our imagination.

Please continue to actively participate in, and support, all of our Club's plans, programs, and activities during the remainder of this Rotary Year. Most importantly, please recommend at least one good recruit to beef up our Club's membership.

Mabuhay ang Rotary Club of Manila!

MEDIUM RARE

A good guy

Mr. Rodolfo T. "Rod" Reyes
Former RCM Member
Chairman, Journalism Awards Committee

HE was a reporter but not one to be feared by the police. A press secretary who didn't use "clout" to ask former colleagues in print and broadcast for officially unofficial favors. Rod Reyes didn't look like a journalist – pale, wan, timid to the point of shy, every inch the gentleman who was born to treat people nice.

For Rod, chairman No. 4 of Samahang Plaridel of senior editors after Max Soliven, Adrian Cristobal, and Neal Cruz in that order, there was no need to play the arrogant s.o.b. or the boisterous, beer-guzzling bar fly at the Press Club. As a police reporter of the original pre-martial Law Manila Times, he was a favorite of publisher Chino Roces. When he was with the original Manila Chronicle of Geny Lopez, those were partying, dancing times – Chronicle folks had more fun, they invited me to their gigs even when I belonged to the Times family, and Rod would be there each time, silently watching with a smile, never loud (not even when he laughed!). Not that he was not having a good time, he was just being himself, proper and properly well-behaved. I presume that's how his widow, Vina, will remember him when she thinks of Rod as a member of the tribe of that happy-go-lucky generation. Rod was 80, which is to say, many of his contemporaries had written "30" before he did, to meet their last deadline.

Rod's paths and mine crossed often, not in any deep-seated metaphysical way. Each time he had a new project – newspaper, magazine, whatever – he'd ask me to join or be a contributor. "Whatever you want, whatever you can," he'd say. There was no reason to sever those Times-Chronicle bonds of the good old days.

The last time I was with Rod, it was for a dinner that Vina prepared for his 80th birthday last year. Erap, the president he served as press sec, arrived late and left late. Mar, Erap's trade secretary, came on time and left early with Korina. Other guests were Freddie Garcia of ABS-CBN, Felipe Gozon of GMA-7, and the guys from Manila Standard, which Rod started in 1987. As usual, I was the outsider but as usual, Rod included me. Wasn't that nice of him!

"Humility does not mean you think less of yourself. It means you think of yourself less." Kenneth Blanchard (born May 6, 1939), American author and management expert

"In one minute you can change your attitude and in that one minute you can change your entire day." Spencer Johnson (born January 1, 1940), American author and management consultant

Although in today's society the family is now graphically viewed with varied faces and features as an effect of modernization and change, however, the basic picture representation of a family is still the same – mother, father, and child.

The quotations I chose for this article are from the two bestselling authors of the book "One Minute Manager" that sold 13 million copies and has been translated in 37 languages. It is about a positive managerial technique that can bring about change in an organization. The managerial technique revolves around the belief that workers who like and believe in their own selves and in their individual capabilities perform efficiently better than those who did not.

Parents are leaders inside the home. They are managers in their own right. Thus "One Minute Manager" is something that they can apply and make use of to their children, household members, and other members inside the home. One minute manager is therefore not just within the context of business but also within the family – the home.

Secrets to Dad and Mom's "One Minute Manager"

1. One minute goal setting. For example, you asked your boy to clean his room. In the process, he would not know if you are asking him to sweep the floor, arrange his books in the shelf, put his things in order, or do all the three. On the other hand if you asked him to arrange his books and put his things in order, he would know exactly what to do and both of you will be satisfied of the things he had done to his room. Set the goals in a clear and understandable manner. Let him know the goals at the beginning of the task.
2. One minute praisings. It does not even take a minute to tell somebody that he did a good job. You simply had to tell a kid, as an example, that he did something good and you noticed it. If you praise a child, he begins to like himself and he gains confidence. You encourage him to do more good and strive for the better.
3. One minute reprimands. This is highly effective because the feedback is immediate. Tell him that he did something wrong. But no blaming! Criticize the work not the doer. Sink in with a few seconds of uncomfortable silence and tell him how valuable he is to you. Once it's over, it's over.
