Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

Last week, we had a fruitful Town Hall meeting where updates on the various centennial projects and activities were thoroughly discussed which excited the interests of our fellow members. Indeed, this is an opportune time to be involved as we celebrate the centennial of our club.

In the Community Service front, I wish to thank the Sagip Kabataan Group led by PD Abe Pascual for leading the Christmas Gift Giving for the Sagip Children last December 6, 2018 at the Asilo de San Vicente de Paul in Manila where they painted smiles on the faces of these children with gifts that made the Yuletide season more meaningful for them, knowing that there are people who care.

In the International Relations front, I wish to invite everyone to register for the 2019 Rotary International Convention in Hamburg, Germany while rates are still reasonable. This likewise presents a last minute opportunity to invite Rotarians from all over the world to attend our centennial culminating activities which happens a few weeks thereafter.

In the Centennial projects front, updates on our various projects had been thoroughly discussed during our Townhall Meeting. Rest assured, your valuable comments and suggestions will be taken into consideration as we want only the best in the celebration of our centennial. With respect to A Legacy of Rotary Service, a proposed program flow is now in place. With respect to Rotary's Heart for Little Angels, another patient has been helped under the leadership of Rtn. Zdenek Jankovsky. With respect to the Rotary Club of Manila Centennial Chorale Competition, our office received a call from the DepEd, scheduling a MOA signing on December 17, 2018 with DepEd Secretary Leonor Briones and Usec Lorna Digno. With respect to REAP, I wish to reiterate my earnest appeal for all of you to participate as more benefactors would mean a better and brighter future for these students. With respect to the Centennial Week, a proposed Centennial Week Calendar is already in place.

In the Fellowship front, I wish to convey my heartfelt gratitude to the World Famous Music Chorale for keeping the spirit of Christmas alive through their Christmas carols at the residences of PD Ralf Gonzales, AT Ner Lonzaga and PD Pepo Nuñez as these, certainly, enhance camaraderie among Manila Rotarians through music. Likewise, I wish to thank Dir. Bobby Joseph for inviting many Manila Rotarians on his natal day which coincided with his being honored by Speaker Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo for his Tourism Advocacy.

Today, let us set aside all our worries as the welcome respite to our busy centennial year has arrived. Let us partake in a sumptuous Christmas feast at the Golden Ballroom 2, Pearl Wing of the OKADA MANILA in Parañaque City and dance the night away to the music of Marcy David and his band while getting the chance to win raffle prizes, all for the reasonable amount of Php 2,500.00. Thank you Chairman AT Jason Ong for making this event an exciting one as well as all Manila Rotarians who donated prizes and graced us with their presence this evening.

Without doubt, these partake in the nature of colossal undertakings entailing our unwavering commitment in furtherance of Service Above Self. Indeed, great things in Rotary are never done by a single individual, but, by a team of Rotarians, moving together towards a common goal. Under ONE CENTURY, towards ONE MISSION and in furtherance of ONE ROTARY, the best is yet to cond. Let us all BE THE INSPIRATION worthy of emulation.

Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year to one and all!

CHRISTMAS STRESS

Elias D. Adamos, M.D.

CHRISTMAS is the season to be jolly. But it is also the season of gifts, rush, parties, and expenses. Even being "home for the holidays" can lower your defenses to stress. You sleep less, spend more, eat unhealthy foods, and drink more with relatives and friends. Christmas and all its angles of dizzying demands and errands can be a season of stress. And for that matter – Christmas stress.

If Christmas had caused an emotional toll on you in the past, here are some tips to regroup yourself for you to be able to emotionally control the holidays.

1. Acknowledge your feelings. If you feel sad or in other words you are experiencing the so-called "Holiday blues," don't force yourself to be happy. Recognize your feelings. Cry if you want to. Crying can be therapeutic.
2. Reach out. Do some volunteer duties in your favorite organization or in your parish church. Renew your association with former classmates, friends, and family. Donate to a charity. After all Christmas is a season of giving.
3. Be realistic and practical. In these days of travel, going to places with your family can be expensive. Instead of actual visits, you can try emails, postcards, Christmas cards, and exchange of pictures.
4. Set aside differences. Grievances and misunderstandings in the family can add up to stress to this happy season. Learn to say "sorry." Accept your mistakes and make amends if you need to. Some family members can be "toxic." Accept them as they are.
5. Stick to a budget. Your shopping list and gift-giving should be adjusted accordingly to what your coffers dictate. Don't overspend.
6. Plan ahead. Avoid the rush.
7. Learn to say no. Parties can overlap and schedules this Christmas can be punishing. Love yourself. Learn to gracefully decline for you to have some time for yourself.
8. Don't abandon healthy habits. The lechon, cakes, and other holiday foods are tempting this season. Have some discipline by having just "small portions" of these glorious foods.
9. Relax and take a breather. Get a massage. Enjoy the shower. Listen to music.
10. See your doctor if you need to. If you really feel bad, seek professional help.

MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

STORY BY EARL CUSTODIO
PHOTOGRAPHY BY RUPERT JACINTO

To whom much is given, much is required." Frank Evaristo is a man with plenty. He is a well-educated man with from San Juan de Letran and Fordham University. He is a civic businessman, a father of five. In every aspect one measures him of a person, one could make a strong argument that he is a success. It would be easy for someone who has accomplished as he to rest on his laurels, to reap the benefits of a life well-lived to gain further rewards. For Frank Evaristo, that is not how he defines success. His is a life of service, of giving back to a society that needs attention, not because it is needed but because re-development depends on it. His focus is the youth and their re-development.

Top of being a former president of the Rotary Club of Manila, president of National Jaycees, and a former president of the British Society, he is the current president of Alay Lakad Foundation, Inc. (ALFI), a civic organization that supports out-of-school their mission statement, ALFI states: Alay Lakad Foundation, Inc. is dedicated to the proposition that it has the right to develop their full potentials and should be opportunities to enjoy that right. We believe that the youth row in an enabling environment that provides for physical, social, moral and spiritual development. Ringing out the mandate of the ALFI, Frank has been working for years inspiring and being inspired by the youth. As president, he has seen several projects for the out-of-school youth, skilled and unskilled, respectively, with his main thrust being to serve the youth by giving them scholarship grants and livelihood opportunities. These scholarships are not merely handouts but measures for how they should contribute to society. He claims, "In particular, our scholarship grants being offered to the out-of-school youth require them to maintain their academic grades, to be in the program. Our mission to assist the marginalized out-of-school youth is to ensure that some productive citizens with the capacity and dedication to contribute to nation-building." Though the ALFI, Frank continues to serve as a catalyst for positive change by using a holistic approach to continue their primary objective of giving the out-of-school youth with a chance to be educated.

Frank's influence cannot be overstated as the ALFI has provided free tuition and allowances, and livelihood programs to upwards of 7,000 marginalized out-of-school youth with the ultimate goal of making them more productive and self-reliant. For skilled out-of-school youth, some of the programs they offer are in vocational careers and technical resources, while massive and sari-sari store training programs are provided for the unskilled out-of-school youth.

The program's success can be seen in the beneficiaries who have completed their respective courses and have been able to find employment overseas through the assistance of foundation. As a result, these former out-of-school youth, once burdens on society, can now boast of being productive citizens elevating the social status of their respective families.

With his eye on the future and his legacy, Frank's goal is to continue the great work of the Foundation. Having been given the opportunity to continue serving as president of the Alay Lakad Foundation, Inc., Frank contemplates his legacy: "The sharing of my blessings, not in material things, but, in terms of my dedication and forthrightness to a service position I have held for more than thirty years as a volunteer without compensation, ultimately stands as my lasting legacy." Ultimately, his dream is to continue promoting and implementing the Foundation's thrust of providing education and livelihood opportunities to the marginalized out-of-school youth of our country. He explains, "The greatest achievement [is] seeing them, the out-of-school youth, becoming self-reliant by tending for their own, as responsible citizens in their respective fields of endeavor. I have so far done my share in assisting some 7,000 beneficiaries of the program, and to continue serving, in my own little way, is a dream I would never forego."

It is a forward-thinking person who looks to sustain society through the youth. It is a benevolent person who does so, not because it is easy, but because it is difficult, because it is necessary. Frank through his leadership of the Alay Lakad Foundation, Inc. has taken an often overlooked sector of society and, for 30 years, provided them with an opportunity to develop into contributing members of society. Through leadership, citizenship, and values formation, the once disregarded and unheeded can now lead a nation. For Frank Evaristo, he can look back at his legacy and know his contribution to society is palpable and tangible. Ultimately, the measure of success in this endeavor is not a personal, solitary success but one of community: when they succeed, we all succeed. He helps raise generations that he hopes one day will raise a country. ●

The Search for The Outstanding Workers of the Republic (TOWER) Awards was founded in 1975 by the Rotary Club of Manila as an annual search for outstanding "blue collar" workers of the country. Subsequently, it included in its coverage "white collar" (non-supervisory) workers. It aims to recognize the contributions to economic development of the legions of skilled workers who constitute the backbone of our country's manpower capacity. The awards program transcended the confines of a Club's concern because of its nationwide reach and significance in uplifting the Filipino workers' morale and social status leading to greater prestige at the workplace – to the entrepreneur / employer and the colleagues, to the family and the community while enhancing individual career opportunities and promoting industrial peace.

ROTARIANS IN MY MIDST

by Rtn. Celso Abastillas

I have been an RCMer for 7 years now, attending weekly meetings, though not religiously, but judiciously. I see to it I get the social and intellectual benefits I expect from every meeting I attend. I try to engage every member seated next to me in meaningful conversations. Of course, this is aside from listening to the talks of the guest speakers invited for the meetings. One Rotarian that struck my fancy was Roy Golez. At his stature, former National Security Adviser, congressman and an ardent advocate of “West China Sea as Philippine Territory”, he was very gracious in sharing and exchanging with me his insights, stories and honest opinions regarding many topics and issues of the week. One memorable story he told me was about the visit of President George W. Bush. He related to me how he and Condoleezza Rice, his counterpart in President Bush’s Cabinet, planned the trip, last minute, the trip of the US president from Malacanang to the House of Representatives in Quezon City. At that very moment, along the roads on way to the House were hundreds of thousands leftist demonstrators waiting for the passing of President Bush. God only knew what would happen under that situation. Condoleezza Rice’s initial decision was to cancell the US president’s address to the Joint session of the Philippine Senate and the House of Representative. Until Roy Golez called PNP chief Edgar Aglipay to check the security situation on the ground. General Aglipay then gave an assurance everything was under control as he had blocked and encircled the demonstrators with container vans. Behind these incidents the congressmen and senators were already edgy because of hours delay. Actually, i myself was watching the proceedings on television then, and i could see frustrations in the faces of the lawmakers. Until it was beamed on TV the limousine of the President of the United States with its flag proudly waving along the Marcos Highway. Roads cleared, no demonstrators at sight, as if they had been driven away totally from the scene. The address by President Bush went well without any untoward incident. Thanks to our very own Roy Golez. May he rest in peace! (Will feature other important Rotarians in next issues).

ROTARY CLUB OF MANILA CENTENNIAL CHORALE COMPETITION

Latest Update:

The Secretariat of the Rotary Club of Manila received call from Joshua of DepEd and our office was informed that there will be a signing of a Memorandum of Agreement on December 17, 2018 at 3:00 pm with DepEd Secretary Leonor Briones and Usec. Lorna Digno. A meeting of the core group is being arranged.

Dear Fellow RCMers,

As you well know, our Centennial Year is upon us. In the past few years leading up to the present, your club leadership has planned and prepared several projects and events befitting this milestone in the history of our prestigious club. During the Town Hall Meeting last August 9, 2018, these activities were presented and broadly discussed. The responses of our members afterwards were inspiring. They want to do their share in making our centennial celebrations truly memorable, not only for RCMers but also to all Rotarians of the Philippines and of Asia. Indeed, in various district functions recently, other Rotarians from all over the country have also expressed their enthusiasm in joining us in the celebration of 100 years of the Rotary movement in this part of the world. They are just waiting, in their own words, for the Rotary Club of Manila to lead them.

It is it time therefore, for us to take the challenge of leading our fellow Rotarians. And for us to do this effectively, the participation of each RCM member is needed. Attached is the list of our centennial committees and their projects. Also provided is the Program of Activities for the Centennial Week. I urge you to volunteer your participation in any of the activities. Together, we can attain greater achievements for our club!

Please indicate the committee(s) / event(s) that you are joining.

Yours in Rotary,

Pres. Susing Pineda
