Samuel Reyes Martires, the sixth Ombudsman of the Republic of the Philippines, had priestly aspirations. But fate intervened and he went on to become a lawyer and more importantly, to tread a remarkable journey in public service.

The significance of this interesting twist in his professional career is not lost on him. “I am the first lawyer in the family. Everyone was happy when I passed the bar. I did not take it against anyone (who believed otherwise),” he reveals in Benchmark, the official quarterly magazine of the Supreme Court Public Information Office. In this interview, Justice Martires shared that, except for his mother, the idea of having a career in the legal profession, and more so in the judiciary, was far removed from the minds of the people who knew him.

But he surprised them all. After receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree from the Manuel L. Quezon University in 1971, this son of Palapag, Northern Samar took up law at San Beda College of Law. Imbued by the school's motto of ora et labora (prayer and hard work), he earned his Bachelor of Laws degree in 1975. In 1976, he passed the Bar Examinations.

Public service is wired in the DNA of Ombudsman Martires. Right after passing the bar, he worked as Legal Officer 2 at the Department of Public Works, Transportation and Communication until 1979. From 1979 to 1984, he served as Assistant Department Manager at the Ministry of Human Settlements.

He went on hiatus from government service when he engaged in private practice from 1987 to 2000.

Upon the prodding of his mother to take on a position in the judiciary, he decided to go back and serve in government. By virtue of hard work and discipline, he went on to carve a checkered career in the judiciary. In July 2000, he was appointed as the Presiding Judge of Regional Trial Court, Branch 32 of Agoo, La Union.

Within five years, or in 2005, he was appointed as the 49th Justice of the Sandiganbayan where he served for almost a decade.

In March 2017, Justice Martires took his oath as the 175th Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the Philippines.

In August 2018, six months before his compulsory retirement from the Supreme Court, he asked the Court's approval for early retirement so that he could fulfill a lifelong dream: to serve and protect the Filipino people as Ombudsman of the Republic of the Philippines.

Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

Last week, we were treated to a heart warming appreciation luncheon where benefactors of the Rotary Club of Manila Educational Assistance Program (REAP) were honored. The REAP Scholars gave a moving testimonial of how the help we have given them has changed their lives while the respective heads of PLM and PUP expressed their outpouring of gratitude to us for coming up with this worthwhile endeavor. As a whole, the entire luncheon touched the hearts of our fellow Manila Rotarians who were present last week.

On the centennial celebration front, we are now on the homestretch of our preparations. On this note, I have secured the commitments of PAGCOR, RCBC Bankard, Toyota Motor Philippines and Ayala Corporation for their sponsorships with respect to the centennial culminating activities. PAGCOR has committed to be a co-presenter. Toyota, through the immense help of PP Boy Guevara, and RCBC Bankard have likewise given their nods to be big sponsors. Ayala will likewise deliver their share in the sponsorship.

The centennial culminating activities kick off on June 20, 2019 where we will have a Salubong Fiesta for our international sister clubs and daughter clubs at the World Trade Center in Pasay City where there would be a concurrent art sale for the benefit of the Hospicio de San Jose Cerebral Palsy Building. This is the Welcome Party where the Guest of Honor will be Rotary International President-Elect Mark Maloney. Attire will be Filipiniana Casual. This runs from 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm.

The following day, June 21, 2019, "A Legacy of Rotary Service" takes place. This is a day long event where activities include the mass oath taking of District Governors-Elect and Presidents-Elect before Rotary International President-Elect Mark Maloney, complete with photo opportunities and a certificate, a Rotary forum of district governors with the Rotary International President-Elect, a Centennial Chorale Competition which aims to awaken the consciousness of the youth towards service, the Centennial Awards for Outstanding Service Projects and an Enchanting Evening with President Rodrigo Roa Duterte. Towards this end, our registration is gradually gaining ground as the event nears. Invitations have already been sent to many, both here and abroad, The Distinguished Board of Judges for the Centennial Awards are now in the process of selecting the best service project from among the ten, chosen by the Screening Committee. Plaques and corresponding tokens are presently being prepared to be given to dignitaries.

The Centennial Gala Night which happens on June 22, 2019 is gradually gaining in attendance as well as in sponsorships as many Manila Rotarians continue to pledge and make good on their pledges of financial support following Chair VPE/PAT Hermie Esguerra's animated appeal during the Town Hall meeting held recently. The program and entertainers are already in place.

The Centennial Commemorative Stamps continue to be on sale. Please secure for yourselves issues of these stamps as they make a priceless piece of memorabilia to be treasured for the rest of our lives.

With respect to REAP, I continue to earnestly appeal to your generosity as we endeavor to have more benefactors to make more dreams of financially challenged, but, academically endowed graduating students of PLM and PUP come true.

Meanwhile, the names of those who have paid and partially paid the Centennial Seed Fund, the Centennial Donations and the Annual Dues will appear in the BALITA as we endeavor to collect all these since they will go a long way in augmenting our centennial expenses.

Today, we shall have Ombudsman Samuel Martires as Guest of Honor and Speaker. He will speak on his experience in maintaining the high ethical and moral standards of government officials by prosecuting them. This promises to be an eye opener into the functions of his office.

Undoubtedly, all these are colossal undertakings which need the most of efforts in furtherance of Service Above Self. Indeed, great things in Rotary are never done by a single individual, but, by a team of Rotarians, moving together towards a common goal. Under ONE CENTURY, towards ONE MISSION and in furtherance of ONE ROTARY, the best is yet to come. Let us all BE THE INSPIRATION as we embrace Rotary in our everyday lives.

BE THE CHANGE (PART II)

Now, you ask yourself, what could a simple Rotarian like myself do? There is plenty that you can do, my dear Rotarian, if you will support your club in initiating projects that could alleviate the plight of our less fortunate fellowmen through feeding programs and free health care services. If you are a medical practitioner, perhaps you could volunteer some of your precious time to give free consultations or medical assistance. You may also participate in club projects to initiate, develop and implement projects that promote livelihood programs for the marginalized communities which have the possibility of providing long-term solutions to the vicious cycle of poverty. This is the time that we begin awareness amongst us, that we, Rotarians who are capable financially as well as capable to bring about change and uplift the lives of many, must act in unity to give the needy a chance to live, a chance to dream and a chance to become themselves contributing citizens to our communities and country.

Bringing about change will not be easy. It will require of every one of us a strong conviction or for each one to take a firm position on a certain issue. It may put anyone in a difficult position. But if you believe in what you do, I advise you to forge ahead and follow your dream. Do not be dissuaded by mean critics, instead, take criticisms constructively and find ways to improve more.

ALL THE DAYS OF MARCH, Part 6
(A month-long of dealing with public health concerns)

Elias D. Adamos, M.D.

The month of March was also the month dedicated to women all over the world. The United Nations on March 8 celebrated the yearly International Women's Day. As a matter of history, the first gathering of women to celebrate International Women's Day happened in 1911. International Women's Day and International Women's Month should not be considered as an avenue for a pivotal discussion on who is the more superior gender. It is not about feminism. Although this year's theme is "Balance for Better," to me, the worldwide day and month for women is not even about gender equality. It is a day and a month of collective efforts of all – both men and women – who care about human rights.

Philippine Laws that protect women

Republic Act (RA) 6725 strengthens the prohibition on discrimination against women with respect to terms and conditions of employment.

RA 6972 is a Law establishing a day care center in every barangay for the total development and protection of children.

RA 7192. Enacted in 1991, it is a law promoting the integration of women as full and equal partners of men in development and nation building and for other purposes.

RA 7322 is an Act increasing maternity benefits in favor of women workers in the private sector.

RA 7600 mandates all government and private institutions with obstetrical services to adopt rooming-in and breastfeeding practices.

RA 7688 is an Act giving representation of women in the Social Security Commission.

RA 7822 was passed into law for the assistance to women engaging in micro and cottage business enterprises and other purposes.

RA 8353 expands the definition of the crime of rape. It also defines and includes marital rape.

RA 8369 establishes Family Courts and granting them exclusive original jurisdiction to hear and decide cases pertaining to child, women, and family issues.

RA 9262 is an Act defining violence against women and their children and providing protective measures for victims and prescribing penalties for perpetrators.

Let me please end this article by quoting Past RI President Bitchai Rattakul, my own Rotary International president as a Loving President. He said: "Virtues of intelligence, integrity, and courage alone are not enough for the leadership that Rotary expects of you. If you are to be a successful leader, you must have the capacity to stand strong under reverses, to rise from periodic defeat and to dedicate yourselves to the ultimate goal. Profit from the mistakes of the past and learn from these experiences. Never be ashamed to own that you have been in the wrong. It is a way of saying that you are wiser today than you were yesterday." President Bitchai also said: "Forming convictions is a natural outcome of the process. If you recognize opportunities, make hard choices, develop focus, and exercise some daring, you will be living life to the fullest. And it is only through living life that you experience the joys, the sadness, the exhilaration and the pain that come with experiencing the consequences of your actions. This is what I mean by conviction. This is what a true leader should profess. As your convictions grow, your contributions to Rotary grow."

As President Bitchai said, we must stand by our principles and convictions. Like the lotus flower, we must remain unaffected but continue to perform our duties as Rotarians holding on to such convictions and principles.

I wish you God's blessings, and may you live your life like the lotus flower, peaceful, content and free from mundane attachments.

SEEDS OF CHANGE

by Rtn. Celso E. Abastillas

SELON MOI . . .

- 1) Love your mother most as she has the most genuine love of all.
- 2) Common people are usually the ones that ride the band wagons. The uncommon ones, however, make the wagons.
- 3) Common sense is not actually common. It is rare.
- 4) As you grow older your outside beauty fades with time. But your kindness in heart lives with it.
- 5) Man tends to judge his fellowmen by what he sees and hear about them, even though these may not be true. That's why man is not generally trusting.
- 6) Don't be afraid to be different. The present situation, like fashion, will not last forever.
- 7) Don't blame others for your problems or misfortunes for they are actually your own doings.
- 8) Technology has made stealing easier and faster. You don't need to go to the bank and rob it like what Bonnie and Clyde did.
- 9) Politics is part and parcel of democracy. Without it, we have autocracy.
- 10) Leaders see the bigger picture. Followers look normally at the smaller one.
- 11) If you are a leader of a group, take care of your people and they will take care of you.
- 12) A leader who has been entrusted with power by his people to make radical changes should know how to use that power and should know, too, when to let it go, lest he ends up in trouble.
- 13) Don't believe a man bragging about his sexual prowess. Believe in the old saying, silent river runs deep.
- 14) It is easier to jail the vote buyers numbering to only a few rather than the vote sellers numbering to millions.
- 15) Wise voters normally do not vote.

(My heartfelt thanks to RCM family for the birthday greetings I received last April 28, 2019. Again, thank you so much!).

Dear Fellow RCMers,

As you well know, our Centennial Year is upon us. In the past few years leading up to the present, your club leadership has planned and prepared several projects and events befitting this milestone in the history of our prestigious club. During the Town Hall Meeting last August 9, 2018, these activities were presented and broadly discussed. The responses of our members afterwards were inspiring. They want to do their share in making our centennial celebrations truly memorable, not only for RCMers but also to all Rotarians of the Philippines and of Asia. Indeed, in various district functions recently, other Rotarians from all over the country have also expressed their enthusiasm in joining us in the celebration of 100 years of the Rotary movement in this part of the world. They are just waiting, in their own words, for the Rotary Club of Manila to lead them.

It is it time therefore, for us to take the challenge of leading our fellow Rotarians. And for us to do this effectively, the participation of each RCM member is needed. Attached is the list of our centennial committees and their projects. Also provided is the Program of Activities for the Centennial Week. I urge you to volunteer your participation in any of the activities. Together, we can attain greater achievements for our club!

Please indicate the committee(s) / event(s) that you are joining.

Yours in Rotary,

Pres. Susing Pineda

Last April 25, 2019, the Rotary Club of Manila Educational Assistance Program (REAP) Appreciation Luncheon was held where officials of PLM and PUP as well as selected representative REAP scholars were invited. This luncheon was staged to honor the benefactors and their generosity in making financially-challenged, but, academically-endowed students' dreams come true. The scholars expressed their overwhelming gratitude by narrating their life changing experiences because of the help they received. PVP Manny Dy graciously donated Php 100,000 for this program during that appreciation luncheon. Heads of both educational institutions likewise expressed their gratitude. PLM President Dr. Leonora Vasquez-de Jesus even remarked that the Rotary Club of Manila has been the biggest donor of scholarships from the institution's inception.

President Susing Pineda conveys his earnest appeal for more benefactors for the project.
