Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

Last week, we celebrated the biggest event of our Rotary year in three straight days, our Centennial Celebration, where we commemorated the strides we have achieved in the past one hundred years of our existence which coincided with the centennial of the Rotary movement in the Philippines and in Asia.

The festivities began with the arrival of Rotarians from our sister clubs from different parts of the world as well as Rotary International dignitaries led by Rotary International President-Elect Mark Daniel Maloney where many of our Manila Rotarians showcased the warmth of Filipino hospitality right at the airport premises.

A grand Salubong Fiesta last June 20, 2019 awaited all invited Rotarians, complete with delectable cocktails and a taste of Filipino culture through dance performances as foreign and local Rotarians alike exchanged pleasantries. Manila Rotarians made a show of force, clad in casual Filipiniana attire while wearing a blue neckerchief with the centennial logo embedded. Wine was overflowing and cocktail food as well as a tinge of Filipino cuisine were commonplace as the evening was filled with fellowship and camaraderie that is uniquely Rotary.

The following day, June 21, 2019, Rotarians trooped early to the Philippine International Convention Center for an entire day of Rotary which included the chorale competition, the lively Rotary forum, the awarding of the most outstanding service projects and the mass oath taking of District Governors-Elect and Presidents-Elect by RI President-Elect Mark Daniel Maloney which drew a big crowd from the Champion team. The evening saw Cabinet Secretary Karlo Nograles delivering President Duterte's message amid a night of music and dancing. Meals for the entire day were as bountiful as the day's activities.

The next day, June 22, 2019, clad in their best Barong Tagalog, one of the biggest if not the biggest number of Manila Rotarians attended the Centennial Gala with the best of the diplomatic corps and Rotarians from all over the Philippines and abroad, became a reality on a night of grandeur and splendor which began with the processional of Manila Rotarians, Past Presidents of the club, the incoming Board and the centennial Board as RI President-Elect Mark Maloney and Chair VPE/PAT Hermie Esguerra shook hands with almost everyone. El Gamma Penumbra and other entertainers such as Jed Maddela brought the house down with a one of a kind performance. Honoring the Past Presidents as they gathered around the birthday cake with PP Toting del Rosario, being the oldest living President, blowing the candle. Remarks and renewal of commitment led by RI President-Elect Mark Maloney culminated towards a toast offered by the District Governor. It was, indeed, an evening to remember.

"A Legacy of Rotary Service" and the "Centennial Gala" were both graced by the presence of US Ambassador Sung Kim, Japanese Ambassador Koji Haneda and Madam Haneda, Rotary International Director Raffy Garcia and Past Rotary International Directors Paing Hechanova and Guiller Tumangan, among other dignitaries present.

Today, as I call to order the meeting for the ultimate time as President of this heritage club, I wish to convey my deepest gratitude to each and everyone of you for making our Centennial Year, an enduring milestone to which we could look back to in the years to come. While I will be handing out awards to individuals who have immensely helped in the success of this Rotary year, I cannot help, but, reminisce the ordeals and challenges we have undergone just to stage this once in a lifetime celebration.

No doubt, all these are colossal undertakings which entail the best of efforts in furtherance of Service Above Self. Indeed, great things in Rotary are never done by a single individual, but, by a team of Rotarians, moving together towards a common goal. Under ONE CENTURY, towards ONE MISSION and in furtherance of ONE ROTARY, the best is yet to come as we begin the next century of service. Let us all BE THE INSPIRATION and embrace Rotary in our everyday lives after having celebrated a centennial worth our lasting legacy for the next century and beyond.

To my Fellow Members of RCM,

Let us join our sister club, the Rotary Club of Singapore, during their inaugural meeting (installation celebration) on the 28th and 29th of June 2019 .

Here under is their message of invitation. To those who will be participating, please contact our International Relations Chair Ed Lee.

Thank you.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL ANXIETY

Elias D. Adamos, M.D.

The fresh school year can be exciting to students of different ages. The anticipation of new friends and the meet ups with classmates and friends in the past school year make the opening of classes interesting to them. But to some, the excitement and anticipation is trounced by nervousness and anxiety. This apprehension is clinically referred to as Back-to-School Anxiety. This condition is common in children who are first-time students, those who are transferring from a learning school to a big school, school transferees, and those who are promoted from a lower grade level to a higher one. Some college students are not spared from feeling jittery and nervousness at the opening of classes. Although back-to-school anxiety can be a normal feeling of adjustment, there are some cases that require clinical attention.

What causes back-to-school anxiety?

A student's anxiety in the first day of class is a feeling of worry that is multiplied to millions. Some of the things that students worry about include:

- Will I like school?
- Will I get good grades?
- Will I know anyone in my class?
- Will I like my teachers?
- What if nobody likes me?
- What if I do not fit in?
- What if I get lost?

When does back-to-school anxiety become a clinical case?

Experts at the Johns Hopkins Children's Medical Center declare that anxiety that persist beyond the first few weeks of school and that seem excessive require consultation for possible counseling and treatment. Dr. Courtney Keeton, who specializes in the treatment of childhood anxiety and selective mutism says, "If a child's anxiety is causing a great deal of distress in her or his daily life, or if getting along with family members or friends becomes difficult, normal activities in and outside of school are avoided, or there are physical symptoms like stomachaches or fatigue, these 'red flags' indicate that the child's anxiety should be evaluated by a child psychologist or psychiatrist."

Tips to ease back-to-school anxiety (Johns Hopkins Medical Center)

- Prepare for school routines a week or two before school opening, such preparing school uniforms and school bag. This is a form of conditioning.
- Help your child's emotional and academic adjustment by arranging a meet up with one or more familiar friend or classmate from the past school year.
- Visit the school before the opening. Rehearse drop off. Have the child practice walking into class. Spend some time in the playground or inside the classroom if the building is open.
- Validate the child's worry by acknowledging that, like any new activity, starting school can be hard but soon becomes easy and fun.

The club currently consisting of 225 members has about 10 projects a year. Popular of them are the prestigious awards in journalism, tourism and labor (Tower). Likewise, what really makes RCM's meetings interesting and worth attending is the rendition with passion and conviction by the World Famous Chorale of Lupang Hinirang and RCM hymn. One line in the hymn which invigorates RCMers is: "RCM is composed of men who are bold and daring". Upon singing the hymn passionately in chorus with the World Famous Chorale, it really makes you feel prouder as a RCM member.

Indeed, the regular Thursday meeting featured with good speakers and good renditions by World Famous Chorale are weekly preoccupations which members normally look forward to. We, the members, feel happy and obliged to attend Thursday meetings with much anticipation. We are a relatively old club, 100 years old with over 60's members. While for some, going there on wheel chair is a hassle, yet they still would come and sing with the World Famous Chorale. That's exactly the spirit at the Rotary Club of Manila.

Quality in members' selection makes RCM one of the premier clubs in the Philippines as well as in Asia, a part of its excellence tradition to which it has never wavered for 100 years now. Yours truly has been a part of RCM for about 7 years now and I have seen how the club grows in prestige and in quality of membership.

By the way, the recently concluded Centennial Celebration was a good example on how RCM members, despite some differences in style and opinions, could join together to deliver on a great project like this. Congratulations and snappy salute to RCM especially to President Susing Pineda, Chairs DE/BLA Amading Valdez, VPE/PAT Hermie Esguerra, PD Phil Ong and the rest of the guys who made the celebration a tremendous Success!

And for the incoming/succeeding officers, Good Luck on the next century of the Rotary movement in the Philippines and in Asia.

Mabuhay!

CONGRATULATIONS and GOOD LUCK, RCM!

Let me narrate what we, Manila Rotarians, normally do at our Thursday meetings for the consumption of the next generations of RCMers. The bell is rung by the president to call the meeting to order. The World Famous Chorale then leads the singing of the national anthem, invocation, followed by the RCM hymn, the recital of the 4-way test, introduction of dignitaries and guests, welcome and happy birthday songs for the guests and birthday celebrants, in that order. Then the president's time follows and finally the speech of the guest speaker, followed by an open forum. Finally, adjournment of the meeting. This routine happens every Thursday, except holidays.

Some funny things that happen during the meeting: right after the singing of the Rotary hymn, a member would holler like a cowboy; the recital of the 4-way test would be made fun by members by repeating everything that the leader says from, "Please repeat after me" until "Thank you". This practice had been going on for years until it was stopped recently, as some old members complained that it was unbecoming of Rotarians. On open forum there is a member who would make comments long enough as if he is the guest speaker himself. This would elicit a loud cry from some members- "Question, Question?"

The club has 4-5 vibor groups for better and faster communication. There is one (R-Men) devoted to "anything goes" topics, be it jokes (dirty or otherwise), current events, fashion, politics, history and even some girlie topics and pictures which at times go beyond the limit of decency. Some left this group on account of the latter.

It's not all fun though being a member of RCM. Like in any organization, politics and or bickerings are inevitable. There are misunderstandings but later on, the greater interests of the club prevail. At the end of every misunderstanding, be it due to differences in opinions, principles or otherwise, members would close ranks eventually for the success of the club's project. One good example is the celebration of the centennial year. It started quite slowly as only a few wanted to get involved in the beginning. But as the "D Day" approached, almost every member is participating and attending meetings, otherwise "they will miss the action, a.k.a fun" from this kind of project which happens only after every century.

REACTIONS TO THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

DE/BLA AMADO "AMADING" D. VALDEZ

No words can express the height of our glee for the camaraderie and the tireless working hands displayed by every RCMERS for the last three days. It was an electrifying salubong fiesta from the heart of a philanthropist of Philipp Ong, a euphoric celebration of achievement on centennial June 21, from the selfless genius of President Susing and the committees, the heavenly masterpiece in the gala night which only a man with a master gift like Chairman Hermie can divine. Your prayers and varied support like your time in the allied activities, the financial flow from your pockets and the go-go-go fire of our staff made all the unforgettable experience possible. Let us be proud for ourselves and for our beloved Rotary Club of Manila. We will be in the next centennial celebration in spirit and memory!
