IT'S HOURS BEFORE VALENTINE'S DAY

Elias D. Adamos, M.D.

"Would you take better care of yourself. Would you be kinder to yourself. Would you be more forgiving of your human imperfections, if you realized your best friend was yourself. Who is always with you everywhere. Who is on your side when others are unfair. And tell me, who will never let you down in any situation. Who will always see you get your share. And that's why I am a best friend to myself. And I take me out whenever I feel low. And I make my life as happy as a best friend would. I'm as nice to me as anyone I know." Helen Reddy (born 1941, Australian-American singer and actress) and Raymond Charles Burton (born 1944, Australian singer-songwriter), "Best Friend" from Airport 1975

When the last day of January finally turns to the first day of February, everybody looks forward to celebrating Valentine's Day. It's a day to show our love to a special someone, significant other, loved ones and family. But Valentine's Day is not only a day of chocolates and roses for others and for that special someone. It should also be a day of loving thyself. It is a day to celebrate love's greatest gift – your own life – YOURSELF.

Why is it important to love yourself?

Loving yourself is synonymous to believing in your own self; on what you can do and on what you can achieve. Loving yourself gives you self-confidence, dignity and self-worth. When you are truly in love with yourself, you become happy, satisfied, and confident. You stop worrying and you stop comparing yourself to others because you find yourself endowed with uniqueness and beauty. You begin to extend your love. You get out of yourself. You start to affect others and invite them to your happy life. As they say: You cannot give what you do not have. It thus amounts to saying that you can give love and have the capacity to love, once you are able to love and understand yourself.

Ways to love and care for yourself

This Valentine's Day, pamper yourself. You deserve the reward! Have a happy and meaningful Valentine's Day!

1. Start each day in a positive tone. Tell yourself something that can make you smile.
2. Now that CoV-19 is still a public health issue and even when the issue finally dies down, nourish yourself with healthy foods and drinks that can make you healthy and boost your immune system. Always stay healthy. Think young.
3. Move your gorgeous body and enjoy it every single day. Stand before a mirror and just admire the beautiful you.
4. Don't believe in the inner critic in you. It slows you down and it just stops you from living a full life. Believe in yourself. YOU CAN DO IT!
5. Surround yourself with positive people. The people who love you and who'll say how amazing you are.
6. Don't compare yourself to others. Compete only with your own self. Improve!

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

Every once in a while, our country produces young men and women of great qualities who give us faith and hope for the greater glory of our country. Such is the case with our guest speaker today.

Our speaker from Davao City was prepared, educated and given the opportunity to be honed into the great works that he is currently doing and is expected to do it during his lifetime. I feel lucky and happy today to have Karlo as our Guest of Honor and Speaker today, not only because of his achievements, not only because he is a nephew of our President and also the Cabinet Secretary, but, also, because my family has long term ties with his family. The great pioneer Davaoeño Rep. Arsenio Suazo, his great grandfather, was the law partner of Judge Joaquin Rodriguez. His father was a close relative as well. He is considered by many quarters as one of the best Speakers of the House of Representatives.

I am leaving for Kolkata later today to join the centennial celebration of the Rotary Club of Calcutta. I will be joined by Chairman PDG Vince Carlos, DE Johnny Chotrani, VPE Thad Liamzon and others.

There is a need for young, good and friendly members for our club. Please help your club in bringing in new members.

Best,

Jackie
