PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Colleagues in RCM,

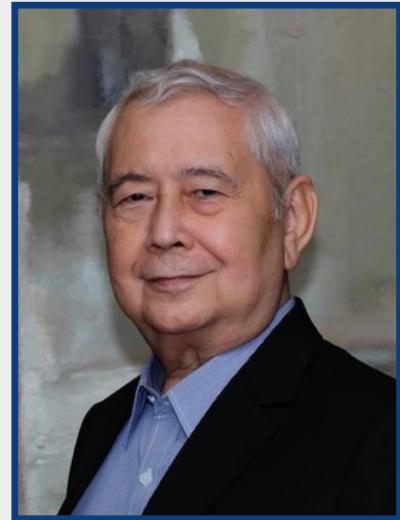

May the blessings of our Almighty God shine upon all of us, our family, and friends worldwide.

Many things happen every week but allow me to focus on some vital concerns to get us going for the coming weeks ahead of us.

A suggestion came a few weeks ago by PSAA Gunther Matchuck for us to donate a sum of money to defray the costs of social outreach to make us sustainable until the end of our term on June 30, 2021. I agree with the suggestion and propose therefore, a total amount of Php 9,000 to be donated, allocating Php1,000 per month over a 9-month period. This will be used to feed the street children housed in different centers in Metro Manila. Since we expect the pandemic to be with us until next year, Rotarians will be stuck with Zoom until the end of our term! This means we shall be saving a lot on weekly meals and transportation. Let us take this into a vote asap.

I would like to include in this report that I conducted my second webinar in Rotary International District 3810 on "Skills as a Good Public Speaker, the Toastmaster Way" last September 12, 2020. Based on my research and experience in conducting seminars and team building programs in universities and tourism forums, I am able to share a wealth of knowledge and techniques. A good public speaker should know how to address the audience, make them feel comfortable by engaging with them while remaining focused on the topic, and be open to receiving feedback. During the webinar, we impressed the importance of being sincere and morally principled, being persistent and patient when practicing, having a positive attitude, doing regular research, upgrading skills, and having the passion to be the best!

This was a great opportunity for RCM to engage with the Presidents and Officials of Rotary International District 3810. We received a resounding high approval and they are looking forward to the third webinar. The two-part video is available for interested members.

This Saturday, September 19, 2020, your Board will be attending the opening of the Sandy Beach Project to show support of RCM in the leadership of DENR Secretary Roy Cimatu on the Clean up, Restoration, and Improvement of Manila Bay. Under his leadership, DENR installed a Sewage Treatment Plant with plans to install three more. Moreover, they have a 43-billion informal settlers relocation budget earmarked by President Duterte for a 6-year project to Save Manila Bay and bring it to its past glory. An awarding will follow organized by Former Manila Rotarian Tony Oposa at the Manila Yacht Club. Proper distancing and health safety measures will be strictly enforced.

Today, we shall focus on the application of online voting for next week's election. I would like to thank the members of the hardworking Board and officers of various committees, with special mention to IPVP and Programs Committee Chairman Hermie Esguerra, for introducing a better online voting system.

As your servant President, it is more about YOU and less about me.

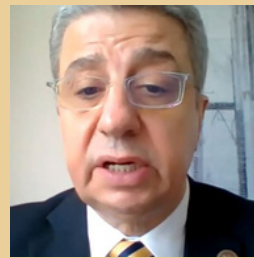

Your Servant President,

Robert "Bobby" Lim Joseph, Jr.
President
RY 2020-2021
(101st President)

President Bobby Joseph delivers his response and thereafter, adjourns the meeting.

CLUB ADMINISTRATION

FROM THE PROGRAMS COMMITTEE

Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

Our forthcoming elections for the Board of Directors for RY 2020-2021 in a virtual format is something new to all of us. Hence, the Committee on Elections and the Programs Committee have worked hand in hand to bring the essential information every Manila Rotarian needs to know with respect to the technical aspects of the elections. As such, today, we have invited Immediate Past District Rotaract Representative Erica Paywan-Florendo and her husband, John Lorenzo Florendo, to enlighten us on their technical expertise on the virtual election platform we will be using.

Join us to know more about our new election format in furtherance of Service Above Self.

Yours in the service of Rotary,

IPVP HERMINIO "HERMIE" S. ESGUERRA
Programs Committee Chairman
RY 2020-2021

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION

AN INVITATION TO JOIN THE ROSTER OF PAUL HARRIS FELLOWS

July 14, 2020

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

An Opportunity has now opened doors for our club to be a 100% Paul Harris Club. With only US$ 500.00 as a beginning contribution, you can now become a Paul Harris Fellow.

We have members who have risen to donor levels that have earned them significant point values. Our fellow members led by IPP Jackie Rodriguez, PDG Alex Cureg, IPVP Hermie Esguerra, PDG Rudy Bediones and PDG Obet Pagdanganan have indicated their willingness to share the points they have earned to allow Rotarians to be enrolled in the Roster of Paul Harris Fellows for only an initial contribution of US$ 500.00 instead of the regular US$ 1,000.00.

Contributions can easily be made by enrolling in www.rotary.org using your R.I. Identification Number. Once enrolled, you are allowed to learn Rotary, increase your circle of friendship and contribute conveniently using the website.

We, Rotarians, belong to a global family of service-oriented people who believe that our congregation is a means to share our blessings to the less fortunate communities globally. The Rotary Foundation is the funding arm of global humanitarian undertakings of Rotary International. It was formally named in 1917 and the first trustees were appointed after Rotary International President Arch Klumph proposed for the establishment of an endowment for the purpose of doing good in the world. The first grant of US$ 500 benefited the International Society for Crippled Children (Easter Seals). History marks the milestone projects of The Rotary Foundation such a scholarship for international graduate study, the elimination of Polio worldwide, the initiation of a World Peace Forum, among others. Under the Rotary's 7 Areas of Service Focus, namely, Peace and Conflict Prevention/Resolution, Disease Prevention and Treatment, Water and Sanitation, Maternal and Child Health, Basic Education and Literacy, Economic and Community Development and lastly, Supporting the Environment, Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation have made themselves relevant to developing communities globally.

All these services would not have been made possible if not for the generosity of Rotarians, who voluntarily enlisted themselves to become members of The Rotary Foundation through a minimal contribution of US$ 1,000.00.

We are currently working on a Global Grants for Covid-19 and other community-related projects. Your contribution will significantly improve the community living of our target beneficiaries.

For any assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Yours in the service of Rotary,

ROTARY INFORMATION

ROTARY THEMES

Each January, Rotary members enthusiastically await the incoming Rotary International president's announcement of the next Rotary theme. The president announces the theme at the International Assembly, an annual training event for incoming leaders.

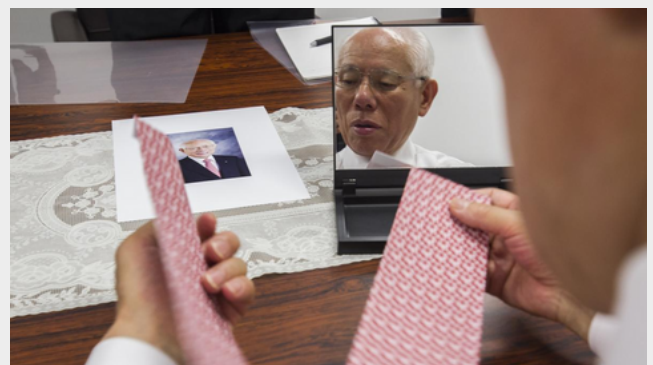

The tradition of crafting a theme is credited to Percy C. Hodgson, Rotary's president in 1949-50. When Hodgson addressed the International Assembly in 1949, he impressed upon the incoming leaders that they had a "glorious opportunity to impart Rotary knowledge" and that "lack of Rotary knowledge can be a deterrent to the successful operation of a Rotary club." Hodgson's 83-word theme, which included a list of four objectives, was substantially longer than today's punchier themes, but it captured his hope that incoming leaders have essential knowledge of Rotary.

Rotarians' desire to celebrate and support their president's annual program of service has continued. Other early themes include Rotary Is Hope in Action (Joaquin Serratosa Cibils, 1953-54), Kindle the Spark Within (Nitish C. Laharry, 1962-63), and Good Will Begins With You (Ernst G. Breitholtz, 1971-72).

Percy Hodgson, at the 1951 Rotary Convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey, U.S., was the 1949-50 Rotary International president credited with starting the tradition of crafting a theme.

In the decades that followed, RI presidents introduced theme logos, lapel pins, ties, and scarves. Theme ties were introduced in the 1990s, and are now crafted annually. Scarves first appeared in 1998-99. Many designs incorporate the theme logo for the year. Others, such as those selected by William Boyd from New Zealand and Sakuji Tanaka from Japan, use colors or imagery that reflects their home country.

FRIENDSHIP TREES: PAUL HARRIS' LASTING SYMBOL OF GOODWILL

As Rotary's president emeritus, Paul Harris traveled extensively during the 1920s and 1930s, often accompanied by his wife, Jean. During these trips, the nature-loving Harris planted trees to symbolize goodwill and friendship. View Slideshow Paul Harris and members of the Rotary Club of Tallinn, Estonia, at a tree planting in 1932.

In the fall of 1932, Harris embarked on a five-week tour of European Rotary clubs and planted trees along the way.

Wednesday forenoon I planted my first tree of friendship in European soil. It seemed to me especially appropriate that it took place in Germany — in its metropolis — Berlin. The planting occurred in a sports platz formerly devoted to war purposes, and a large number including Rotarians, city officials, and others were in attendance.

Ever since, Rotarians have planted trees in the name of fellowship, friendship, and community service. These trees, which can be found worldwide, have grown into enduring monuments of Rotary's ideals.

Later in his tour of Europe, Harris also planted trees in Estonia, Norway, and Sweden.

Planting trees became a hallmark of his travels, including in Australia, Brazil, Japan, Mexico, and New Zealand. In “My Road to Rotary,” Harris recalled, “With the cooperation of Rotarians and local governments, I have planted friendship trees in the parks and playgrounds on five continents of the world and even on some of the major islands of the seas. Our trees stood as symbols of international understanding and good-will.”

Other Rotary presidents also observed the tradition. In 1931-32, then-RI president Sydney W. Pascall planted trees at the sites of Rotary clubs he visited, reportedly at Paul Harris' suggestion.

Not all of the trees were planted outside the United States. The Harrises often entertained visiting Rotarians and dignitaries in their Chicago home and planted trees with their guests to mark the occasion. They called the garden their Friendship Garden.

Rotarians continue to plant trees to symbolize enduring friendships and fellowship, to beautify parks and communities, and to contribute to a greener world.

BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY: ALAY LAKAD

FROM THE STANDS – Domini M. Torrevillas (The Philippine Star)
September 10, 2020 – 12:00am

They were a picturesque sight – hundreds upon hundreds of men and women in shorts or knee-jagged Levis carrying bottles of water running along Roxas Boulevard and heading towards the end of their journey – the Quirino Grandstand at the Luneta. There are dozens of fun runs but the most famous of them is Alay Lakad, an activity held every first Sunday of September for the past 47 years. The 48th fun run should have been held last Sunday, but the coronavirus stepped in and put it on hold.

But not to worry. Frank Evaristo, president of Alay Lakad Foundation, says as soon as the air is clear, the next fun run will be on again. He expects the same 5,000 or more participants to sign in for the event.

The foundation's chair is President Duterte, and vice chair is Vice President Maria Leonor Robredo. The board of trustees is made up of Frank, John Siy, Domingo Yap, Rudy Bediones and many others, from civic and public organizations.

The “walking” activity started as a response to the call of the late DSWD Secretary Estefania Aldaba Lim to enable out-of-school youths (OSYs) to attend school through scholarship programs, educational assistance, skills and livelihood trainings. Through the years, says Frank, Rotary Clubs International and the Philippine Chinese Federation have been avid supporters of the walk-for-a-cause program. With the yearly fun runs, more than 70,000 grants have enabled OSYs to attend school and livelihood trainings. This year, even without the fun run, students are provided materials as they pursue studies online.

Frank, a likeable fellow, has a BS in commerce degree from Letran University and a masters in business administration from Fordham University in New York. He was elected the 95th president of the Rotary Club of Manila for the year 2014-2015.

NUTS N' BALLS

by PP Boy Guevara, Jr.

John, who lived in the north of England, decided to go golfing in Scotland with his buddy, Shawn. They loaded up John's minivan and headed north. After driving for a few hours, they got caught in a terrible blizzard. So they pulled into a nearby farm and asked the attractive lady who answered the door if they could spend the night.

"I realize it's terrible weather out there and I have this huge house all to myself, but I'm recently widowed," she explained, "and I'm afraid the neighbors will talk if I let you stay in my house."

"Don't worry," John said. "We'll be happy to sleep in the barn. And if the weather breaks, we'll be gone at first light."

The lady agreed, and the two men found their way to the barn and settled in for the night.

Come morning, the weather had cleared, and they got on their way. They enjoyed a great weekend of golf. But about nine months later, John got an unexpected letter from an attorney. It took him a few minutes to figure it out, but he finally determined that it was from the attorney of that attractive widow he had met on the golf weekend.

He dropped in on his friend Shawn and asked, "Shawn, do you remember that good-looking widow from the farm we stayed at on our golf holiday in Scotland about 9 months ago?"

"Yes, I do," said Shawn. "Did you, er, happen to get up in the middle of the night, go up to the house and pay her a visit?"

"Well, um, yes!," Shawn said, a little embarrassed about being found out, "I have to admit that I did."

"And did you happen to give her my name instead of telling her your name?"

Shawn's face turned beet red and he said, "Yeah, look, I'm sorry, buddy I'm afraid I did. Why do you ask?"

"She just died and left me everything."

(And you thought the ending would be different, didn't you?...You know you smiled... now keep that smile for the rest of the day!!!)

My Grandfather Enrique: The pioneer diplomat

A third-generation Filipino diplomat talks about growing up under the shadows of his illustrious grandfather and father. Their influence has left an indelible impression on him, making him choose a life in the foreign service over writing and music.

By Hendrik Garcia

Life is a struggle from the cradle to the grave," he always told my father. In these difficult and uncertain times caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, I draw strength from this saying.

Today, 12 September 2020, Lolo would have been 110 years old.

For three generations, our family has had the honor to work in the foreign service of the Philippines. Lolo Enrique started the tradition when he joined the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) in 1946.

Apart from his passion for foreign languages, Ambassador Enrique Garcia had a penchant for jewelry and elegant clothes, earning for him the moniker "Diamond Jim." But to dear friends and colleagues in the diplomatic circle, he was also fondly referred to as "Ka Iking."

Born in 1910, the late Enrique Melocoton Garcia hailed from New Washington in Kalibo, Aklan. During World War II, he was a guerrilla fighter who survived an ambush by Japanese forces on his unit. The scar on the back of his head served as a lifelong reminder of the attack.

He moved to Manila after the war and finished law school, later marrying the late Dr. Roberta Laperal de Guzman, who was one of the first female doctors in the country.

"Diamond Jim"

He had dark complexion and a tough but cool demeanor. He liked the finer things in life, was an avid billiard player, lover of foreign languages and a heavy smoker. Perhaps because of his penchant for jewelry and elegant clothes, not a few of his colleagues called him "Diamond Jim." But those who were close to him fondly referred to him simply as "Ka Iking."

With his battle-proven patriotism, legal training, and wide array of interests and hobbies, he proved to be an excellent diplomat.

After my father, Victor Garcia, was born in 1947, Lolo was assigned briefly to the Permanent Mission of the Philippines to the United Nations (UN) in New York. He witnessed the passage of the historic UN resolution which paved the way for the creation of the State of Israel. This foreshadowed his later appointment as Ambassador to that country.

In 1948, my grandfather was transferred to the Philippines' representation in Nanking, China. It was the height of the Communist Revolution. To ensure their safety, the family was moved to Tokyo. By this time, he and Lola had four children.

My grandfather's next foreign assignment or "posting" was in London. In 1952, he and my grandmother were the official representatives of the Philippines at the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

The author's paternal grandparents, Enrique and Roberta, during the crowning of Queen Elizabeth II in 1952

After three years, Enrique was sent to Paris, France. My dad fondly recalls that he went to the local French school with his siblings. It is a fascinating coincidence that decades later I now work at the Philippine Embassy in Paris as deputy permanent delegate to UNESCO, and our kids also go to a local French school – how history repeats itself!

Back to Manila

In 1957, Lolo returned to the DFA in Manila as counsellor for economic affairs, equivalent to the rank of assistant secretary. He later became counsellor for policy planning under the administration of President Diosdado Macapagal.

He was appointed ambassador to Israel in 1965. Below is an iconic photograph of him rubbing elbows with Golda Meir, the first and only female prime minister of Israel. After a long and illustrious career, Lolo retired in 1972 soon after the successful completion of his final tour of duty.

Then Philippine Ambassador to Israel Enrique Garcia with Golda Meir, third from left, the first and so far only female prime minister of Israel

Dad and I followed in my grandfather's footsteps, continuing his dedication to public service and international relations.

My father took the bar and Foreign Service Officer (FSO) exam, joining the DFA in 1975. Like Lolo, he was first assigned to the Philippine Mission to the UN in New York. Thereafter, he became consul-general in Rome, Los Angeles and Kobe/ Osaka.

He was appointed ambassador to Vienna, Austria and permanent representative to the UN Office there in 1999. He also served as chief of protocol and assistant secretary for legal affairs at the DFA. He capped an illustrious diplomatic career as ambassador to Russia before retiring in 2012.

Growing into the job

In turn, I tried my hand at the FSO exam and entered the DFA in 2002. I was a bit reluctant at first, since I pictured myself more as a writer or a musician. However, I grew into the job.

In a way, I was accustomed to it, being brought up in a diplomatic family. Passion for languages and the arts fit well with a profession aimed at fostering intercultural understanding. I also enjoyed playing a part in strengthening international cooperation to address global issues, such as climate change, combating human trafficking and safeguarding cultural heritage.

I first served at the Philippine Mission to the UN in Geneva, Switzerland covering the Human Rights Council. In the Home Office, I worked at the Offices of European Affairs and the Undersecretary for Policy. As my posting in Paris concludes, our family shall soon return to Manila. We look forward to new adventures that lie ahead.

Throughout my career and life, I have found inspiration in my grandfather's stoic way of looking at and dealing with things. The realization that "life is a struggle from the cradle to the grave" makes us clear-eyed, ready to face the moment and determined to overcome challenges.

Despite the sacrifices of moving so often, I never forget that it is a privilege and solemn responsibility to promote the interests of our country and people abroad. "Prepare and prepare, for your day will come!" is another quote from Lolo that Dad passed on to my sister, Roxanne Garcia-Plata, and me.

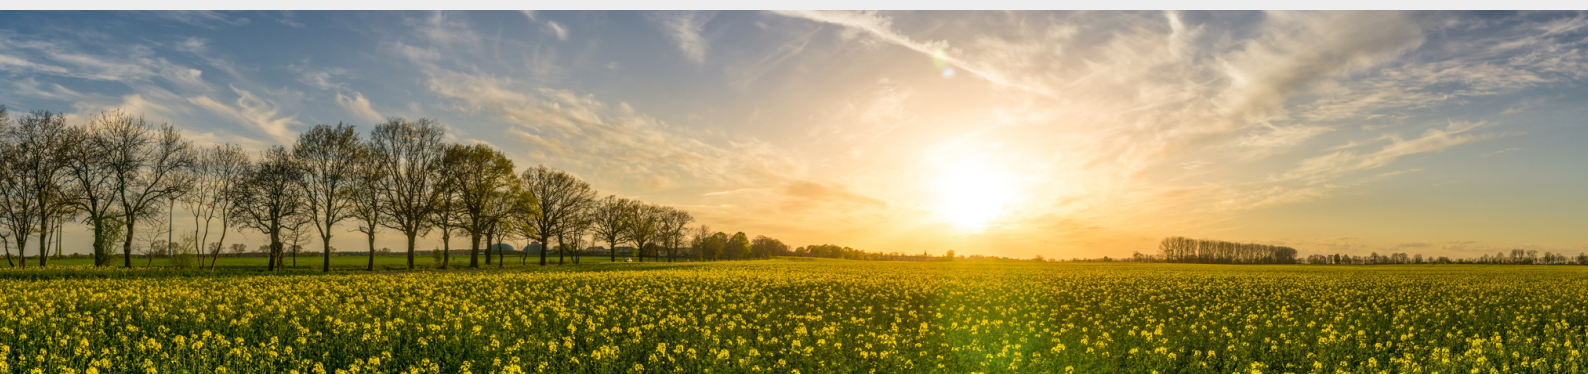

On the occasion of my Lolo Enrique's 110th birth anniversary, I want to share and celebrate his life as a public servant and diplomat. Thanks to his pioneering lead and my father's sterling example, I trust and continue this path of diplomacy and discovery.

Happy Birthday, Lolo!

Jesus Enrique "Hendrik" Garcia is minister and consul at the Philippine embassy in Paris, France. As deputy permanent delegate to UNESCO, he represents the Philippines in discussions on education, science, culture, communication and information and governance. He is married to Marta Uglik Garcia, a Polish freelance translator. They have two children, Sofia and Sean. He enjoys good coffee, wine, jogging, playing the guitar and meditation.
