PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Dear Colleagues in RCM,

Welcome to our 45th Weekly Membership Meeting.

Today marks a special day for all of us, our last meeting for the Transformational Rotary Year 2020-2021.

We are people of action. We have accomplished so much during this Rotary Year, and I am very grateful to each of you for your cooperation, participation and hard work.

This year, we welcome 37 new Rotarians – all dedicated and committed to deliver Service Above Self.

While RY 2020-2021 has been one of the most challenging times for many, this Rotary Year has been a productive one for RCM despite and amidst the pandemic. We have been very active and supportive of most projects in District 3810.

To date, we have implemented 48 meaningful community service projects under the 7 Areas of Focus, all of which touched and improved so many lives.

1. DISEASE PREVENTION & TREATMENT

On July 1, 2020, we kicked off our CoVid-19 response donation and distribution of essentials. Beneficiaries included Manila City Hall, Hospicio de San Jose, Sta. Ana Hospital and Ospital Ng Maynila. As part of our CoVid-19 Response Relief Operations and Outreach Programs, we have donated test kits, face masks, relief goods, food packs and essentials. The Rotary Club of Manila also turned over to the City Government of Pasay, 90,000 pieces of face masks donated by Rtn. Kenji Mori of the Rotary Club of Kuzuha, Japan.

In August 2020, we supported Php 300,000 to our Secretariat with CoVid-19. The following month, we provided financial support (Php 50,000) to Baby Amara's operation. We also donated medical supplies and safety equipment to Philippine General Hospital on October 8, 2020.

In December 2020, at least 10 patients at the PGH Hematology-Oncology Department/Pediatric Cancer Ward benefitted from our donation worth Php 519,000. On the same month, we also sponsored one wheelchair in Quezon City.

In February 2021, Rotary Club of Manila, in collaboration with Medicare Plus and Technecology, donated 2,000 CoVid-19 Test Kits worth Php 3,500,000 to the City of Pasay; COVID-19 test kits worth Php 4,000,000 to the City of Parañaque; and 2,000 CoVid-19 Test Kits worth Php 4,000,000 to the Municipality of Taytay.

We also conducted Blood Donation / Blood-Letting activity in Esguerra Farms, Lipa City, Batangas.

The Sight Preservation Committee of the Rotary Club of Manila reprised its "Pagkalinga sa Mata" Project from May to June 2021. Led by Project Director Rtn. Jack Bautista and with my Php 100,000 donation for the project, the Free Cataract Surgery Mission took place at the University of Santo Tomas Eye Center, University of Santo Tomas Hospital in Manila.

2. BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY

Rotary Club of Manila, through the RCM Manila Foundation, forged a partnership with TV5's Alagang Kapatid Foundation to provide 50 students with monthly cellphone load for their online learning. This is an ongoing project which we started in December 2020.

RCM also supports the District Fund Raising Campaign for Tuloy Foundation for scholarship and vocational training of homeless kids. I donated Php 100,000.00, and IPPV Hermie Esguerra and IPP Jackie Rodriguez donated P20,000.00 each.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

In March 2021, RCM donated over 100 books and learning materials to the patients at the PGH Children Cancer Ward.

Under Sinag-Aralan EduAksyon, a joint project with JCI Makati, we are installing bamboo libraries powered by solar panels. The project aims to cater to the needs of the community and to widen one's perspective, as well as to promote healthy reading and research through books. The first one benefitted the children in Tondo, Manila in April 2021. The second was for the indigenous kids in identified communities in MIMAROPA region.

3. PEACE BUILDING AND CONFLICT PREVENTION

On February 22, 2021, we showed support to peace and conflict advocacies of the Judicial Reform Initiative.

In April 2021, we implemented three meaningful projects in partnership with JCI Makati: (1) "One with Ramadan: A Feast for Peace," a feeding program in Marawi City on April 12, 2021; (2) "MindaNOW: Uniting Culture and Traditions" on April 12 and 13, 2021; and "Light Up a Barangay" where we donated solar-powered streetlamps to Area 6, Barangay Emie Punud in Marawi City to illuminate the neighborhood of 400 households.

4. WATER, SANITATION AND HYGIENE

We take pride in spearheading the SAVE MANILA BAY project. This signature project aims to clean up, rehabilitate and preserve Manila Bay.

During the launching of Save Manila Bay project

5. MATERNAL & CHILD HEALTH

In October 2020 and April 2021, at least 500 residents of Tuloy Village in Alabang benefitted from our Support to Tuloy Streetchildren Foundation, Inc. initiative.

In December 2021, we supported the PGH Hematology-Oncology Department Special Care for Children with Cancer by donating PHP 519,000.00. We followed it up with another donation of industrial fans and infant diapers in May 2021 to help the fire victims in PGH.

We also provided financial support for the surgery of pediatric heart patient Baby Neal in April and May 2021 where we donated PHP 225,000.00.

At least 500 residents of Hospicio de San Jose benefitted from our Php 200,000 cash donation in August/September 2020, and PHP 480,000.00 cash donation on April 30, 2021 to help address their needs during the CoVid-19 outbreak. We also donated truckloads of diapers, milk chicken meal packs and other essentials.

6. COMMUNITY & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

One of RCM's signature projects is the Hospicio de San Jose Cerebral Palsy Building. We have been supporting this project since July and the total project cost to date is PHP 4,000,000.00.

Another meaningful project is the Aquaponics Farming Technology in Paraiso Farm, Batangas City, which we started in December 2020.

RCM also provided financial support to victims of Typhoon Ulysses in Bulacan and Cagayan in December 2020.

On February 7, 2021, we launched "Baryanihan: Barya Mo, Tulong sa Kapwa Mo," a joint project of the Rotary Club of Manila and JCI Makati, to help deliver collective concern to alleviate hunger and sickness.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

For our Mushroom to Classroom project, a joint project with JCI Makati which we started on February 18, 2021, we converted empty classrooms in Pasay City to be the habitat of mushrooms. We also conducted a seminar on how to grow and harvest mushrooms, how to create different products out of mushrooms, and how to make the business growing and production sustainable. This project is expected to be a sustainable long-running program of the targeted beneficiaries of 201 Barangays in Pasay City.

In April 2021, with my personal donation of Php 195,000, we are supporting three scholars taking a two-year Electromechanics Technology course at Dualtech Training Center Foundation, Inc. The scholarship program covers the cost for the first six (6) months of training, which includes housing, meals, uniforms, insurance and others. In the next eighteen (18) months, they will undergo on-the-job-training at Dualtech's partner companies, who will also provide them allowances. Dualtech is a private vocational school that pioneered in adapting the German Dual Training System in the Philippines. I also donated Php 105,000 for Dualtech's expansion project.

On May 25, 2021, we supported the University of Makati Center for Community Development in Nation Building's Oplan Hatid Tulong Program, in cooperation with four other Manila Rotary Clubs, by donating seven gallons of isopropyl alcohol to Philippine Orthopedic Hospital.

7. SUPPORT THE ENVIRONMENT

Besides the SAVE MANILA BAY project, another RCM's signature environmental initiative is PROJECT T.R.E.E.S. (The Rotary Ecological and Environmental Strategem). The program includes tree planting, conservation and development of clean water, education for barangay captains for sustainable waste management, and support the training for recycling plastics.

I am also delighted to share the other initiatives that we have undertaken in the Club.

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION

For Rotary Year 2020-2021, the Rotary Club of Manila has contributed US$ 82,794.11 or about Php 4,033,563.45 to The Rotary Foundation. We are the biggest contributor in the District. Despite the pandemic, we are inspired to give to the Foundation and continue doing good in the world.

CCRC

RCM is proud to report that it has initiated the organization of the CIRCLE OF CENTENNIAL ROTARY CLUBS with Rotary Club of Shanghai, Calcutta, our mother club, Rotary Club of Seattle, WA and engaging other centennial clubs like Minneapolis, Madrid and London. We take pride in having this remarkable and historical effort which started here in Rotary International District 3810, Philippines.

CLUB ADMINISTRATION

From the Programs Committee

Dear Fellow Manila Rotarians,

There is a saying that "all good things must come to end". As we reach the final meeting of an eventful and successful Rotary Year 2020-2021, it is, but fitting that we end it with a bang on the occasion of the CLUB AWARDS AND VALEDICTORY MEETING where time and talents of our very own take centerstage in a hybrid event (at The Heritage Hotel Manila to a limited number and on the virtual platform) as the curtains fall, signalling the swan song as ROTARY OPENS OPPORTUNITIES for all takes a bow.

Manila Rotarians, take the floor, today, 12:30 PM, June 24!

Very truly yours,

Know Your Club Constitution, By-Laws and Policies

Q: What is the protocol on the placement of the Philippine Flag?

A: The following item in the Code of Policies is authoritative:

"6.1.8.2 The Flag

When the Philippine flag is displayed on a staff within the portion of a room designated as the speaker's area, it should occupy the position of honor, which is to the right of the speaker as he faces the assembly. Other flags should be at the speaker's left. If there is more than one foreign flag, they should be arranged in alphabetical order to the left of the Philippine flag. When not placed within that section designated as the speaker's area, the Philippine flag should occupy the position of honor, which is to the right of the audience, with the other flags at their left. The flags should be approximately equal size.

The national flag may be displayed flat, above and behind the speaker. At a horizontal position, the blue side should be on top; and if hanged vertically, the blue side should be to the left of the audience. Never hold the flag while the anthem is being played / sung."

Q: What is the policy on the delivery of the Invocation?

A: The following item in the Code of Policies is authoritative:

"6.1.8.3 The Invocation

An invocation is an act or process of petitioning for help or support. There is no justification for an invocation to be done interminably as to bore the audience. It should be direct to the point, clear and short. Invocation is not applauded.

Although Filipinos are predominantly Catholic, an invocation at a club meeting should be ecumenical in nature in deference to other members and guests who profess other religious beliefs and faith. No need for making the sign of the cross."

Q: What is the policy on the Introduction of Visiting Rotarians and Guests?

A: The following item in the Code of Policies is authoritative:

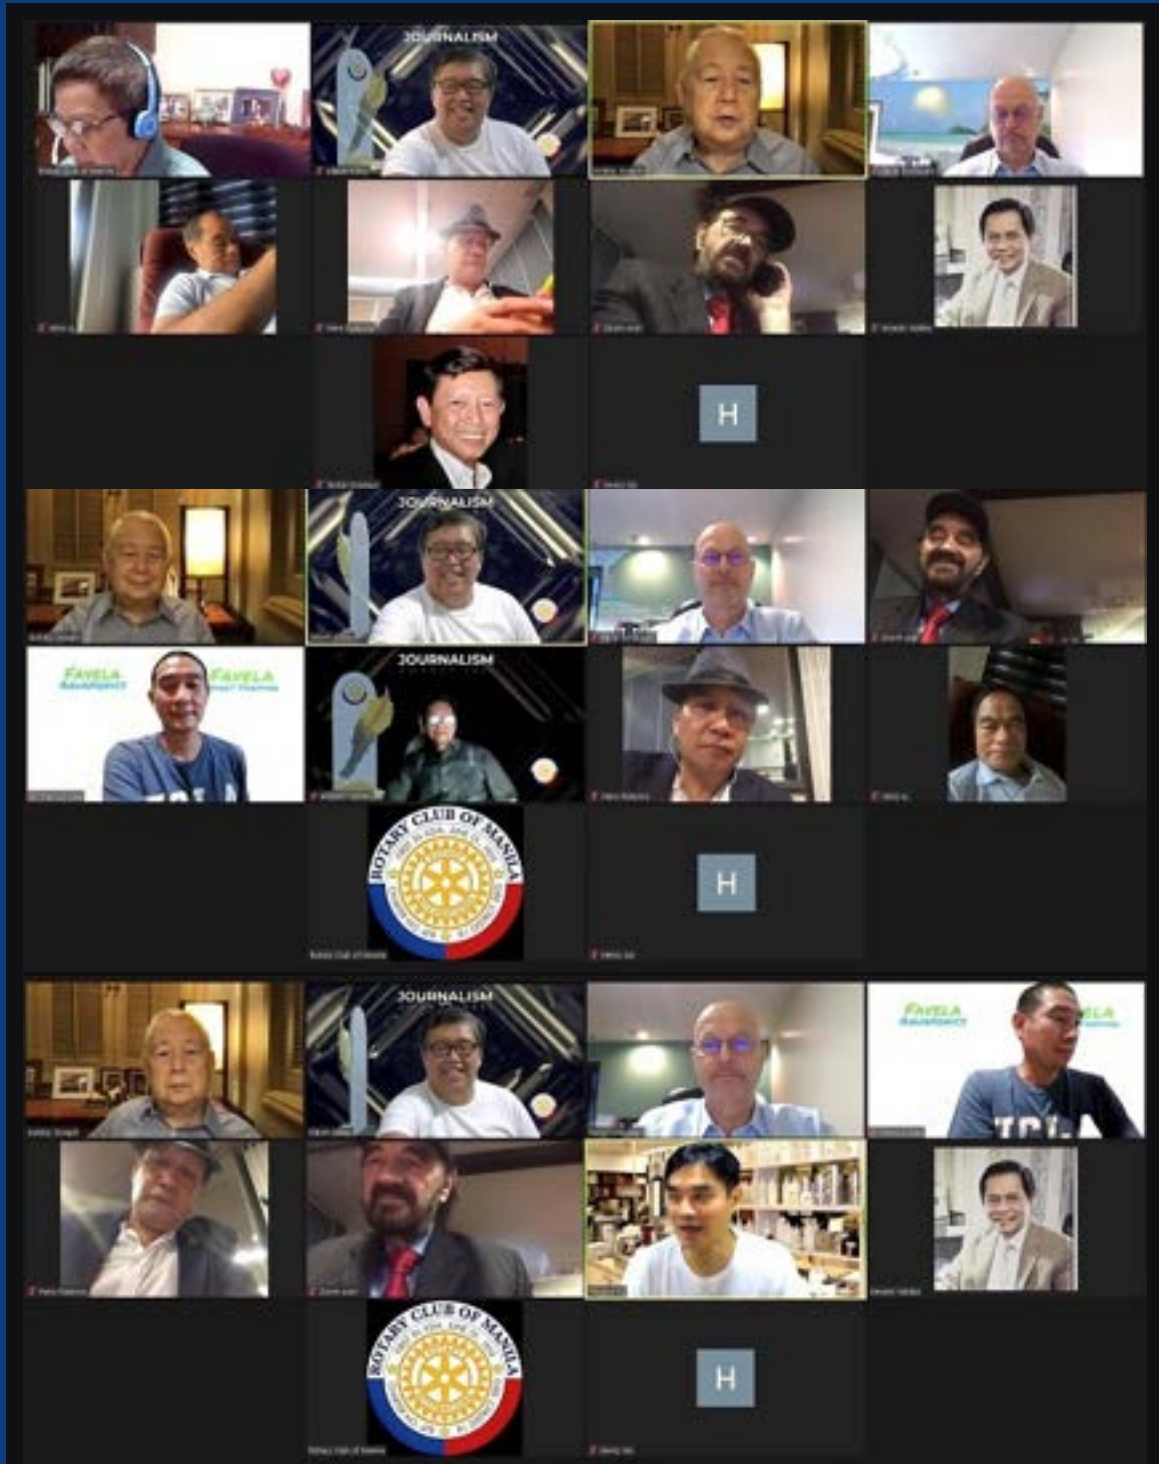

"6.1.8.4 Introduction of Visiting Rotarians and Guests

The Rotarian tasked to introduce visiting Rotarians and guests should review the guest list way ahead of his part of the program. He should verify discreetly whatever he finds illegibly written. A guest will be more than happy to provide the introducer with further detail about himself so he could be properly introduced.

Start by mentioning his club, if a Rotarian; his position in his club, his classification, if he had been the guest of the club before, etc; and if a non-Rotarian, perhaps the club members may be interested to know his profession, calling or business. Only then may you mention his name, and do lead in the applause."

Sinag-Aralan EduAKSYON

JCI Makati and the Rotary Club of Manila will undertake a joint project, entitled, Sinag-Aralan EduAksyon. It aims to produce bamboo libraries powered by solar panels for readers of the chosen communities. The books that these libraries will house are from different genres. These will be available for reading in order to cater to the needs of the community and to widen one's perspective. This project likewise aims to promote healthy reading and research through books as these are already declining in patronage nowadays due to the availability of internet.

THE ROTARY FOUNDATION

An Invitation to Join the Roster of Paul Harris Fellows

July 14, 2020

Dear Fellow Rotarians,

An Opportunity has now opened doors for our club to be a 100% Paul Harris Club. With only US$ 500.00 as a beginning contribution, you can now become a Paul Harris Fellow.

We have members who have risen to donor levels that have earned them significant point values. Our fellow members led by IPP Jackie Rodriguez, PDG Alex Cureg, IPVP Hermie Esguerra, PDG Rudy Bediones and PDG Obet Pagdanganan have indicated their willingness to share the points they have earned to allow Rotarians to be enrolled in the Roster of Paul Harris Fellows for only an initial contribution of US$ 500.00 instead of the regular US$ 1,000.00.

Contributions can easily be made by enrolling in www.rotary.org using your R.I. Identification Number. Once enrolled, you are allowed to learn Rotary, increase your circle of friendship and contribute conveniently using the website.

We, Rotarians, belong to a global family of service-oriented people who believe that our congregation is a means to share our blessings to the less fortunate communities globally. The Rotary Foundation is the funding arm of global humanitarian undertakings of Rotary International. It was formally named in 1917 and the first trustees were appointed after Rotary International President Arch Klumph proposed for the establishment of an endowment for the purpose of doing good in the world. The first grant of US$ 500 benefitted the International Society for Crippled Children (Easter Seals). History marks the milestone projects of The Rotary Foundation such a scholarship for international graduate study, the elimination of Polio worldwide, the initiation of a World Peace Forum, among others. Under the Rotary's 7 Areas of Service Focus, namely, Peace and Conflict Prevention/Resolution, Disease Prevention and Treatment, Water and Sanitation, Maternal and Child Health, Basic Education and Literacy, Economic and Community Development and lastly, Supporting the Environment, Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation have made themselves relevant to developing communities globally.

All these services would not have been made possible if not for the generosity of Rotarians, who voluntarily enlisted themselves to become members of The Rotary Foundation through a minimal contribution of US$ 1,000.00.

We are currently working on a Global Grants for COVID-19 and other community-related projects. Your contribution will significantly improve the community living of our target beneficiaries.

For any assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Yours in the service of Rotary,

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio: The Man Who Has Done It All but Isn’t Done Yet

by Rhea Vitto Tabora

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio has done it all—directed a class play, taught acting, performed in theater, did movies (and was even nominated for Best New Actor at the Star Awards for his role), and had a stint in ramp and commercial modeling. He also has a professional background in marketing, public relations and business development. Now a finance and strategy expert, STAR Rtn. Anton acts as a moderator, panelist and speaker in business events, including his own channel, Finance Education Series (FEdTalks). He also conducts, facilitates and hosts seminars, and writes articles on relevant business issues.

A C-level Consultant, he transitions easily into different sectors and settings—banking and finance, technology, agriculture, trading, plastics manufacturing, engineering, ICT, property, telecoms, energy, water and start-ups.

As a management consultant for business strategy and finance, his core areas include investment strategy, risk and compliance, and financial management advisory. His private consultancy includes innovation management, transaction advisory, sustainability, ICT, technology in finance (fintech), digital transformation, organizational development and training, executive coaching, confidential recruitment and outplacement, and outsourced CFO services for various business sectors.

A man of many hats, STAR Rtn. Anton is currently the Chief Finance Officer of Multidisciplinary Innovative Technologies, Inc., a tech start-up, and Managing Director of Netcore Development Ltd., a representation company registered in Hong Kong with headquarters in the Philippines.

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio: The Man Who Has Done It All but Isn’t Done Yet

Indeed, he has done it all. And along the way, he has tasted successes and had experienced failures.

Get to know more about STAR Rtn. Anton and the interesting path he took to get to where he is today. He also shares his advocacies on financial inclusion, sustainability, competitiveness, integrity and continuing professional development.

On a lighter note, he also shares his interests and hobbies, as well as his inspiration who shaped him to become who he is today.

Rhea Vitto Tabora (RVT): What do you like most about your work as a Financial Consultant?

Anton Mauricio (AM): The best part is that I get to be as truthful (honest, open, transparent and fair) as possible to the client, which is not what they usually get. I like the autonomy and creativity that consulting allows, for me to be able to find innovative solutions to strategic concerns, beyond the restriction of being employed or beholden to the company in any way.

RVT: What was the path you took to get to where you are today?

AM: My path is riddled with failure after failure. Whatever marginal success I have right now is owed largely to my partner of almost 17 years, my family, my friends, my faith, and a large amount of luck. I am under no illusion that I possess any sterling quality that sets me apart from others. My quixotic drive to try to change the world for the better has taken me to my current path of forsaking financial opportunities just to be able to live a life where I can sleep better at night with my conscience clear.

My quixotic drive to try to change the world for the better has taken me to my current path of forsaking financial opportunities just to be able to live a life where I can sleep better at night with my conscience clear.

RVT: Please describe your advocacies on financial inclusion, sustainability, competitiveness, integrity and continuing professional development.

AM: I founded the Financial Literacy Partners (FLP) which is aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, particularly, on financial inclusion (to advance financial education for economic empowerment, especially for the underprivileged). The FLP, started in 2006, has the largest network of finance students, teachers, and professionals in the country, covering more than 200 educational organizations and 40,000 individuals.

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio: The Man Who Has Done It All but Isn’t Done Yet

The idea is that the mindset of consumerism runs contrary to savings and investment. Changing these mindsets in order to inculcate savings and investment, linking them into a framework of knowledge (events, training, testing, certification, continuing professional development), and practical intervention (financial institutions/cooperatives, insurance, investment, asset management, estate planning, etc.) is a long-term vision, and I have invested millions of my personal funds over the past decades (the progenitor of FLP was iTraining which gave corporate finance training in the late 1990s). It is only starting to bear fruit and we expect this movement to achieve sustainability within five more years.

One of my current projects (Adopt-A-Farmer) is something that I think maybe RCM may be interested in.

FINANCE EDUCATION

With an aim to produce topnotch financial professionals while centralizing support for finance education in the Philippines, the founders of the Financial Education Center or FEdCenter has invested an estimated P5 million annually over the past few years. The FEdCenter is a network of 136 schools (as of 2016) covering around 20,000 to 30,000 students and educators. It also advances financial literacy and learning through programs such as the National Finance Summit, National Finance Competition, National Finance Education Week, and the Financial Literacy Caravan, which travel to various universities across the country. Aside from these programs, the Center highlights financial sustainability as a cornerstone of finance education.

Outside formal schooling initiatives, other companies such as Philam Life and General Insurance are stepping up efforts to improve the financial literacy numbers in the country. The company is doing so by inculcating the value of financial literacy among children while they are still in their formative years. This program, called Philam SAVES or Savings Awareness and Values Education Sessions, equips school children with the right skills and information to see them through better financial decisions as they grow up.

Since 2006, the finance academe network expanded to 136 schools

RVT: What is the best part of leading a team or organization?

AM: Leadership is a sacrifice, so I think the best part would be that if each team member would have the ability, willingness and mindset to be able to take over as the leader at a moment’s notice.

I generally try to avoid being the leader unless (1) there is no one else capable; (2) a vacuum would ruin the organization; and (3) my participation would make a drastic positive difference. That is premised on how much I care for the organization, which, in turn, would be anchored on how relevant the organization is to both my life and the world in general.

RVT: You were once a movie actor. How would you describe the experience?

AM: Enriching, rewarding, and memorable.

I started in Ateneo grade school directing a class play, then again teaching acting to Tulong Dunong kids in high school, and finally doing theater with Dulaang UP, where I did four plays and narrated for an opera.

I went through a bit of ramp and commercial modeling in college and some time after, where I met a friend during a fashion show in Los Angeles. She became my manager and during my brief time as a professional actor, I was able to do six movies, one of which was awarded Best Picture at the Urian (critics award). I myself was nominated for Best New Actor at the Star Awards for the supporting role in the same movie.

I was trying to do too many things at the same time, since I was also studying law during that period. I eventually ended up quitting both acting and law and started my professional career that led me to this point as a strategy and finance consultant.

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio: The Man Who Has Done It All but Isn’t Done Yet

RVT: What do you consider your greatest accomplishment?

AM: In business, my greatest accomplishment is also my greatest failure. I put up a livelihood cooperative and was able to provide small business loans, insurance, medical and legal assistance, to ten areas in Luzon.

We helped so many people with their personal and business lives. My business naivete led me to trust people who absconded with funds, basically tanking the company. I was so disillusioned (how people could steal from a social enterprise) that I almost lost faith in people in general. This is partly why I am a big animal lover.

RVT: Who inspired you to become who you are today? How did this person influence your life?

AM: My parents. My father was a banker and my mom was a teacher.

Now, I am in both areas in my consulting business and my social enterprise — Finance Education Center.

STAR Rtn. Anton Mauricio at ANC On the Money

STAR Rtn. Antonilo “Anton” Mauricio: The Man Who Has Done It All but Isn’t Done Yet

RVT: What’s the most important thing that people should know about you?

AM: I do not judge people by what other people say about them. I will decide on my own.

RVT: What are your interests and hobbies?
What do you do when you are not at work?

AM: I have been trying to get into a healthy lifestyle. That means watching what I eat, trying to get the proper amount of sleep, and getting my steps in. I have my bicycle, run a couple of times a week, and plan to get back into the pool, which I stopped when the pandemic started.

I am a big TV and movie fan, which is part of the reason why I went into acting for a time.

RVT: What’s the best thing about joining the Rotary Club of Manila? How has the Rotary journey changed you?

AM: I think the best thing about joining the RCM is its potential. Despite its being the oldest Rotary Club in Asia, I view RCM as just scratching the surface of what it can actually achieve. My Rotary journey has just started, but I think that I have been living the ideals of Rotary long before I became a Rotarian (well, STAR Rotarian).

I am humbled by my acceptance into RCM, and have much to learn from my fellow members.

STAR top recipient of Rotary Manila journalism award

The Philippine STAR is the top recipient of the Pro Patria Journalism Award 2021 of the Rotary Club of Manila for print media. For television, TV5 Network has received the Pro Patria Journalism Award from the RCM.

The STAR and TV5 Network, both under the Media Quest Corp. OneNewsPh., were named as top recipients of RCM's annual Journalism Awards held virtually via Zoom webinar yesterday. This year's RCM's Pro Patria Journalism Awards selection and judge committee was chaired by Rotarian ex-dean Amado Valdez. In the certificate and trophy delivered beforehand to all the awardees, RCM cited the Pro Patria Journalism Awards 2021 were presented to them for their "commitment of valuable resources for the protection of free expression and its resilience in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry."

and encouraging and confident scrutiny of private enterprise and by promoting private and public sector collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident and dynamic people all for the love of country," RCM cited.

"By promoting public and private collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident and dynamic people. ALL FOR THE LOVE OF COUNTRY."

At the 44th meeting of the RCM, outgoing RCM president Robert Lim Joseph congratulated all the awardees selected from the three media platforms on print, TV and radio.

Joseph explained the prestigious RCM Journalism Award was being done on "institutional" basis after the outbreak of the coronavirus disease 2019.

But by next year, Joseph announced, the RCM intends to resume the prestigious RCM Journalism Awards to media personalities who made a difference in their profession in accordance with the "Four-Way Test" of the Rotary Club.

The RCM Journalism Awards project was started in 1966 and was later adopted as a perpetual participation of the 100-year-old club in the annual observance of National Press Week.

Three reporters and a columnist of The STAR were among the print, radio and broadcast journalists who received the last individual awards handed out by the RCM on June 7, 2019.

The STAR is already in the RCM Hall of Fame for winning several times as Best Newspaper of the Year.

The other recipients of RCM's Pro Patria Award for 2021 in the print media category include Philippine Daily Inquirer, The Manila Times, Manila Standard, Manila Bulletin, Pahayagan Malay, The Daily Tribune, Chinese Commercial News, Business Mirror and BinNews Asia Magazine.

For television, the RCM Pro Patria Award was given to GMA Network, Eagle Broadcasting Corp. and CNN Philippines.

For radio, the RCM Pro Patria Award was given to World Broadcasting Corp., Radyo Mo Nationwide (RMN) Network and the Manila Broadcasting Co. (DZRH).

In his brief remarks, Joseph noted the 2021 Journalism Awards comes on the eve of his turnover of leadership to his successor as RCM president.

The oldest Rotary Club in Asia founded in 1919, RCM's charter members are persons heavily involved in the socio-political-economic life of the country and active in many socio-civic endeavors.

FOR RESILIENCE, DEFENSE OF FREE EXPRESSION

INQUIRER RECEIVES ROTARY CLUB OF MANILA'S PRO PATRIA AWARD

The Philippine Daily Inquirer received the 2021 Pro Patria Journalism Award from the Rotary Club of Manila (RCM) "for its commitment of valuable resources for the protection of free expression and its resilience in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry" during the challenging times.

The Inquirer was recognized for the "fearless and selfless use of its platform and facilities for constructive criticism of government policies and actions, and [for] encouraging adequate and competent scrutiny of private enterprise."

The paper was also honored for "promoting public and private sector collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident and dynamic people, all for the love of country," according to the award citation.

This year's RCM awards for the print and broadcast media featured institutions—instead of individuals—in recognition of their resilience amid the coronavirus pandemic.

Inquirer associate publisher Juliet Labog Javellana received the award on behalf of the 35-year-old newspaper that was founded a year before the 1986 EDSA People Power Revolution.

Resilience Initiatives

Javellana recognized the "unique and very meaningful" award, noting how the past year saw the business community, the media and Filipinos in general doing "nothing short of heroic" to survive the unprecedented challenges brought about by COVID-19.

To overcome the constraints on distribution due to the community quarantine, she said, the Inquirer aggressively promoted its digital newstand, Inquirer Plus, for subscriptions to give readers continued access to accurate, responsible journalism especially during the health crisis.

"Our journalists continued to report on the government's management of the pandemic [response] and produced special reports on other vital issues," she said.

The Inquirer also started producing podcasts and webinars to reach a wider online audience, she added.

The company also launched community," she said of IMI, which is also implemented via the Inquirer Plus mobile app.

These initiatives, she said, were "not just for our self-survival but also to fulfill our role in a democracy—to provide our readers with accurate, timely and truthful information, to empower them to make good decisions about their lives and their country."

Javellana thanked the Rotary Club of Manila for inspiring the Inquirer and other media organizations to soldier on, noting that "as we face a critical election year in the midst of the pandemic, the free and independent media will again be called upon to help the voters make critical decisions about our future as a nation."

'Most credible'

The Inquirer was previously named by the RCM as Newspaper of the Year in 2009, 2010, 2004 and 1992, apart from earning dozens of awards for individual reporters, columnists and correspondents since 1987.

In 2020, the RCM cited the Inquirer as "undeniably the country's most credible and influential newspaper." "Not only is it the most read among all sectors and ages, it is also the country's most trusted source of hard-hitting news and countless exposés," it stressed.

Anado Valdez, a former chair of the Social Security System and former law school dean of the University of the East, chaired the 2021 RCM Awards committee, with Frank Evaristo as committee vice chair. Also heading out the awards at the program held online on June 17 were Farid Alain Schoucar, director of vocation services, and RCM president Robert Joseph.

Other Pro Patria awardees in the print media were the Philippine Star, Manila Bulletin, Manila Times, Manila Standard, Pahayagang Malaya, The Daily Tribune, Business Mirror and BizNews Asia Magazine.

For television, the awardees were GMA Network, TV5 Network, Eagle Broadcasting Corp. and CNN Philippines. The World Broadcasting Corp., Radyo Ma Nacionwide (RMN) Network and Manila Broadcasting Co. (dcbf) received the awards for radio.

"for the protection of free expression," Manila Standard publisher Rolando Estabillo, in accepting the award, said the newspaper's brand of patriotism is "never blind" — pointing to former US Senator Carl Shurz's famous quote: "My country, right or wrong. If right, to be kept right; if wrong, to be set right."

"This is a reasonable zeal for one's country. And we at Manila Standard stay hewed closely to this principle in taking a stand on burning issues," Estabillo said.

"We are gratified and humbled by your recognition of our work in nation-building. While our role is a small one, it comes forth big to us in more ways than one. Bringing you the latest and relevant news of the day is only half of our daily toil. The other half, and more importantly, is to ensure your paper observes the highest standards of journalism," he added.

Estabillo also recognized all the employees of Manila Standard who made the award possible.

"This is an award that belongs not to a select few but to all who labor silently to put Manila Standard to bed to see light again each new day," he said.

Angel Thoughts

Happy Father's Day to all daddies, papas, tatays, amas, who deserve all our love and respect not only today but all the days of their lives. Thank you for the love and care they give their children and the mothers of their children! I had a loving, hard-working, really upright father, Amado R. Munson, who did not always have the funds to give us six children luxuries but who never ran out of love and care for us. He was a businessman and a small-time publisher, who introduced me to the printed word.

The Rotary Club of Manila (RCM), the first in Asia, now 100 years old, dedicated the 2021 Pro Patria Journalism Awards to this year's Independence Day celebration. It cited several prestigious institutions in the print and digital world of media for their service of the nation.

The RCM Journalism Pro Patria Award and Certificate of Recognition to all the awardees.

They were singled out for their resiliency in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry in these critical times, RCM president Bobby Joseph said. Media is vital to a democracy, Rotarians believe.

Dean Amado D. Valdez, former chairman of the Social Security Commission and chairman of the 2021 RCM's Journalism Awards, cited these print, TV and Radio institutions for committing valuable resources for the protection of free expression and providing a platform and facilities for constructive criticism of government actions. The awards in the print media category went to the Manila Bulletin, which was accepted by its publisher Sonny Coloma; the Philippine Star, which was accepted associate editor Marichu Villanueva; the Philippine Daily Inquirer, which was accepted by publisher Juliet Javellana; Manila Times, which was accepted by president and CEO Dante Ang II, the Manila Standard and Journal Group of Companies, which was accepted by Rolando Estabillo; Daily Tribune, which was accepted by Chito Lozada; Chinese Commercial News, which was accepted by Solomon Yuyintong; Business Mirror, which was accepted by its publisher Anton Cabangon Chua; and BizNewsAsia, which Tony Lopez accepted with bristling words for freedom of media.

The awardees for the TV media category were CNN Philippines, TV5, GMA, Eagle and Broadcasting Corporation. For radio media category the awards went to Word Broadcasting Corporation, Radio Mindanao Network (RMN), and Manila Broadcasting Company. For club journalism category, the lone individual recognized was Manila Rotarian Albert S. Alday, chairman of the Balita Committee and editor-in-chief of the Balita, the official newsletter of the Rotary Club of Manila.

RCM used to be the forum for the most important political and social issues. We remember two meetings in particular during the martial law years at its regular venue then, the Manila Hotel.

There was a full-house crowd as then President Marcos was the speaker. He had called for a general special elections and running in the opposition slate was Ninoy Aquino's widow, Cory Aquino. After the speech, Marcos fired a parting shot—"Cory isang bala ka lang (You're just a bullet)."

He was whisked out of the ballroom on the shoulders of his close-in security men, waving his arms triumphantly. He wore a barong Tagalog with rolled up sleeves, which had blood dripping from his arm. It was whispered that he had been undergoing dialysis.

The next week's RCM meeting had candidate Corazon Aquino as guest speaker. The ballroom was packed to the rafters. She brought the house down with her retort to Marcos' "Cory, isang bala ka lang!" She said, "Marcos, isang boto ka lang (You're only one vote)!"

Back to the RCM awarding ceremonies, there was a brilliant performance by the shadow-play group, the Gamma Penumbra, and a patriotic song by old balladeer Anthony Castelo. Manila Bulletin publisher Sonny Coloma gave the response for the paper.

"In behalf of the men and women of the Manila Bulletin, I wish to thank the Rotary Club of Manila for conferring on our organization the Patriotic Award.

Throughout the pandemic, we have endeavored to deliver the news promptly and accurately to our readers and followers in the Philippines and throughout the world. This has been our commitment since the Manila Bulletin was founded in 1900. Through two world wars, several previous epidemics, Martial Law, natural calamities and disasters, the Manila Bulletin has performed its civic duty, ever mindful of its tradition of being the exponent of Philippine progress.

Today, we reaffirm our abiding commitment to continually inform, inspire, and empower our readers and followers—and to be a force toward building a more resilient and vigorous Filipino nation."

We are proud of our paper. We congratulate its past and present department heads and editors, journalists, photographers, layout artists, online staff, librarians, and administration officials, headed by our big bosses Emil Yap III and his uncle, Basilio Yap! And we pay homage to our late great Don Emilio Yap whose courage, determination, and foresight sustained and pushed MB to be the No. 1 daily in the country!

Thank you to the Rotary Club of Manila!

Tribune among Rotary's 'Pro Patria' champions

BY WYNN SANCHEZ
JUNE 18, 2021

Daily Tribune was forged in fire when it first saw print in the days prior to the 2001 uprising that catapulted Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo to power.

Since then, the newspaper has become a reference for stories that transform national and political scenes.

Its brand of uncompromising journalism in the past 21 years is encapsulated in its "Without Fear, Without Favor" motto. It has won recognitions for standing for truth and in exposing the ills of society through the power of facts and analysis.

On Thursday, the broadsheet which has come to be known as The People's Paper acquired another feather in its cap with the 2021 Pro Patria Journalism Awards which the Rotary Club of Manila gave out to 18 print, broadcast and radio outfits which distinguished themselves for fair and accurate information.

Media plays key role

Dean Amado D. Valdez, former chair of the Social Security Commission and Chairman of the 2021 RCM Journalism Awards, said that media has played a pivotal role in this critical juncture when global anxiety is at its highest due to the pandemic.

Print, TV, and Radio institutions have stood as vanguards of free expression and provided a platform and facilities for constructive criticism of government actions to ensure the efficient delivery of services.

Rotary Club President Robert Joseph cited the resiliency of the Philippine media in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry in these critical times.

Joseph added that love of country is foremost among the awardees and cited their role in promoting public and private sector collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident, and dynamic people.

No skipped edition

Executive Editor Chito Lozada gave testimony to the Daily Tribune's being unrelenting during the period of health emergency when its publication never ceased.

The determination of the newspaper and its staff was based on the belief of its president Willie Fernandez that the flame of press freedom burns if printing continues. The late founder of the Daily Tribune, Ninez Cacho Olivares, shared a similar thought.

She frequently told her staff to be guided by only one principle: That Tribune should be put to bed each day of the year.

The Philippine Sea Games Organizational Committee Foundation (PHISGOC) Inc. scandal on the alleged misuse of government funds; the onerous deals of water concessionaire and now the transmission grid contractor; the mishandling of the West Philippine Sea approach; and the many corruption issues involving high officials were carried in the pages of the newspaper.

With the recent recognition, the Daily Tribune indicated that it will be inspired to do more to be worthy of the people's confidence.

(Eagle News) — Eagle Broadcasting Corporation (EBC) received the prestigious “Pro Patria” Journalism award from the Rotary Club of Manila (RCM) on Thursday, June 17, for its commitment to truthful and responsible reporting and information dissemination in these challenging times.

EBC President Rowena Dela Fuente Deimoy received the award on behalf of EBC in online virtual ceremonies, and thanked the Rotary Club of Manila for the recognition.

“On behalf of the men and women of Eagle Broadcasting Corporation, we would like to extend our gratitude to the Rotary Club of Manila, for recognizing our network with this Pro Patria award,” Deimoy said.

“More than a year under the pandemic, EBC is committed to give joy and hope to our people by producing programs to uplift their spirit in these interesting times,” she said.

Deimos also said the award will also serve as an inspiration to the whole EBC organization, including its television, radio and online platforms, in their performance of their duties to “deliver factual and relevant information to uphold democracy.”

It is also a recognition of the valuable work of media frontliners “in these challenging times.”

“Our most utmost thanks to our stakeholders for their continued support. But in all of these, we praise God for all His blessings and guidance,” the EBC President said.

According to the Rotary Club of Manila, the Pro Patria Journalism Awards 2021 is also “in celebration” of the country’s Independence Day.

The award recognizes selected print, broadcasting and radio who have exhibited the “commitment to valuable resources for the protection of free expression and its resilience in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry.”

“By its fearless and selfless use of its platform and facilities for constructive criticisms of government policies and actions and encouraging and confident scrutiny of private enterprise and by promoting private and public sector collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident and dynamic people all for the love of country,” the award stated.

“Love of country pervades as media finds its lofty place towards a united nation in the face of the global pandemic, the PRO PATRIA JOURNALISM AWARDS 2021 of the Rotary Club of Manila, the First in Asia,” the Rotary Club of Manila said in giving the awards.

Metro Manila (CNN Philippines, June 17) — CNN Philippines on Thursday received the Rotary Club of Manila's Pro Patria Journalism Award 2021, which recognized media organizations' role in covering the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

During the virtual ceremony, CNN Philippines president Benjamin Ramos said the network would continue to provide news the public could use and news that could be trusted across all platforms, and to continue reporting events locally and around the world in context and with perspective.

"We thank you for recognizing our efforts and initiatives to report news as truthful and accurate as possible. After all, that's our mission - to deliver news you can trust. It is our commitment with or without this health crisis," he said.

Ramos added that covering the pandemic showed the network's commitment to making sense of both public health and economic reporting in all of its platforms.

Rotary Club of Manila president Bobby Joseph said this year's format is institutional instead of individual, in a move to recognize the collective effort of the Philippine media in reporting factual information about the global health crisis.

GMA Network on Thursday was named one of the recipients of Rotary Club of Manila's (RCM) Pro Patria Journalism Award 2021.

GMA Network Senior Vice President Marissa L. Flores received the award on behalf of the Kapuso network from RCM virtually via a Zoom meeting.

According to RCM, it is presenting the Pro Patria Journalism Awards 2021 during these challenging times for the media's "commitment to valuable resources for the protection of free expression and its resilience in disseminating fair and truthful information resulting in an informed and enlightened citizenry."

"By its fearless and selfless use of its platform and facilities for constructive criticisms of government policies and actions and encouraging and confident scrutiny of private enterprise and by promoting private and public sector collaboration in building a strong nation of healthy, peaceful, confident and dynamic people all for the love of country," RCM said during the virtual event.

In her speech, Flores commended and dedicated the award to all teams of GMA Network from all platforms.

"GMA News and Public Affairs teams in television, radio, and web have covered all kinds of nature events and calamities but perhaps in recent times none as risky as this pandemic," she said.

"It is to them reporters, crew, our field and production personnel and staff. Those who work tirelessly to deliver the news that we dedicate this recognition," said Flores.

"I can only imagine the fear, the worry, and anxiety that many of them face every day that they have to leave their homes and family to cover this invisible enemy," she added.

"No one is immune from COVID and no one is immune from fear but we all do what we have to do in the best way we can because the public depends on us."

She also thanked Rotary Club of Manila for recognizing GMA Network. "You can count on our truthful, ethical, and responsible journalism and our serbisyon totoo especially during these most difficult times," Flores ended her speech.

Instead of giving individual journalism awards as a tradition of the RCM, the organization decided to dedicate awards to media outlets in print, radio, and TV networks "which remained open as formal outlets for reports and information on important events and government actions that impact on the lives of our people and to encourage awareness on matters of public concern."

Rationale of the Pro Patria Journalism Awards

by Dean Amado Valdez

Chairman

Pro Patria Journalism Awards 2021

Board Legal Adviser, RY 2020-2021

It has been said that “news is the first draft of history.” And that draft is written through our newspapers, our television, our radio networks.” The danger is when “history” becomes “a set of lies agreed upon”. This happens when there is only one newspaper, one television, only one radio network that exists. We are happy that we have multi-media outlets which are represented by our awardees. Their importance is that they not only tell us what is happening, they are also our records, our daily national diaries or journals. When the future generation will try to understand their own world, they will look back to the records of today, to the archives of these newspapers, TV and radio stations of our awardees today.

It is said that “history repeats itself” but we would rather say, “history should never repeat itself”, not to repeat the wrongs of our present. Our awardees have important roles to play. That the wrongs of the present, the false leaders of this generation, will be avoided, rejected and forgotten by our children and the next generation.

Previously on television was a Hongkong publisher who was charged and imprisoned for telling the truth on what is happening in that city. It brings into focus the sacrifice given in terms of personal safety, resources, and human lives just to print a newspaper or a tv or radio network to broadcast a record or journal of what is happening in that part of the world. The late Yuyitung, publisher of Chinese Commercial News was executed in 1942 for refusing to tell a lie. That potential danger, that sense of threat to the personal security that confronts our awardees are REAL. Despite that, they push the limit of our freedom – the right to think and express what we think.

For their LOVE OF COUNTRY, we are giving to these institutions – the:

Filipinos in Tunisia hold historic first PH Independence Day celebration in capital Tunis

Published June 23, 2021, 9:00 PM
by Roy Mabasa

After more than 45 years since the establishment of the bilateral relations between the Philippines and Tunisia was formalized, Filipinos in the Northwestern African country gathered for the first time to celebrate the 123rd anniversary of the proclamation of Philippine Independence in the capital city of Tunis.

The Philippine Embassy, together with the Philippine Honorary Consulate General in Tunis led the historic activity held on June 19, 2021, an event attended by about one hundred members of the Filipino community (Filcom) members, many of them donning Filipiniana outfits. The Filipinos even voluntarily brought different authentic Filipino dishes to share with the attendees during the celebration.

After the mass, the Embassy officers and FilCom members, including Filipino-Tunisians, gathered for the "Fiesta in Tunisia" at the Philippine Consulate General's office building in Les Berges du Lac.

"Today's event is a historic one as it is the first time our kababayans in Tunisia will celebrate Independence Day," Dayang said in his brief remarks as he thanked Honorary Consul General to Tunis Sonia Ayed and the FilCom members for organizing the event on their own.

Dayang encouraged the Philippine Consulate General and the Filipinos in Tunis to make the Philippine Independence Day celebration an annual event and to prepare for the 50th anniversary of Philippines-Tunisia diplomatic relations in 2025.

During her welcome remarks, Consul General Ayed enjoined Filipinos to collaborate with the Embassy in its efforts to "raise the profile and enhance the image of the Philippines among Filipinos in Tunisia."

Diplomatic relation between the Philippines and Tunisia was established in December 1975 during the administration of President Ferdinand Marcos.

In December 2019, President Duterte dispatched Chief Presidential Protocol and Presidential Assistant on Foreign Relations Robert Borje to Tunis to convey his gratitude to the Tunisian government for its vital role in assisting in the repatriation of overseas Filipino workers fleeing from the escalating violence in neighboring Libya.

Pandemic President of JCI Makati and Honouree under American Association of the Philippines

2021 JCI Makati President Lawrence Li Tan has produced over 500 projects in the first six months of his term. Placing positive change and long-term impact as main focus of his projects, Tan was able to touch lives of thousands of Filipinos who were deeply affected by COVID-19 pandemic.

One of his stellar projects was HEROES program of PTTC of DTI which aims to help displaced and expatriated OFWs to become entrepreneurs. JCI Makati under tan's leadership created modules that helped develop new Ex-OFW entrepreneurs in the country.

League of Leaders is another priority project where tan together with his Board of Directors designed leadership programs for the youth. This project's goal is to create more Filipino youth leaders who will be advocates of change that will help our country to rise up faster from the pandemic.

Lawrence "Lance" Li Tan is a multi-awarded businessman having opened 16 hotels, shopping centers, food chains, transport terminals and is also a member of the academe. Tagged as the Museum Prince in Asia, Tan has been a tourism advocate ever since, but this has gotten deeper when his love for the Philippines is on the table.

For this year, Lance is one of the honourees under American Association of the Philippines (AAP) for his spectacular programs for the Indigents along with other leaders.

AAP is composed of Americans, Filipino Americans, Filipinos and other nationalities and celebrates the partnership of its members—the American community, the US Embassy, and the American corporations—which in 1949, helped the struggling local Americans displaced by World War II in the Philippines.

AAP is also the owner-in-trust of the American Historical Collection, with approximately 60,000 volumes about the American colonial period and post-war events that were once housed in the U.S. Embassy. With the support of its different partnerships and members, AAP is able to conduct its social welfare projects.

Rotary Citation

CITATION GOALS AND INSTRUCTIONS

To be eligible for the Rotary Citation, clubs need to begin the year as active clubs in good standing – or having paid each invoice balance in full upon receipt. To verify that your club is in good standing, check your daily club balance report under Club Administration > Club Finances. You should have an outstanding balance of $0.00. Invoices are due when they are posted, in mid-January and mid-July.

Rotary club leaders can go into Rotary Club Central and select at least 13 out of 25 goals they wish to apply toward citation achievement. This flexibility allows clubs to choose the goals that are most relevant and achievable. In addition, many goals will be self-reported by marking “achieved” in Rotary Club Central.

To achieve the citation:

- Go to Rotary Club Central
- Review the 25 available goals
- Select at least 13 goals (or more than 50% of the available goals)
- Achieve those goals
- Report achievement in Rotary Club Central

Once you are in Rotary Club Central, navigate to the Goal Center, select the year, and click on the All tab to see the goals.
