GUEST OF HONOR AND SPEAKER

HON. HERMILANDO I. MANDANAS

Governor, Province of Batangas

Kabalita

Opening opportunities for provinces and other areas in the countryside to develop and provide an economically healthy environment for their constituencies is an imperative. Indeed, when the rural poor sector find life getting more difficult by the day, they migrate to the metropolitan areas, hoping to find greener pastures. However, with an already congested metropolis, they ruefully end up joining the ranks of the urban poor. In short, while they went to a different location, they find themselves in the same economic situation. Clearly, the accelerated growth of the various provinces and localities outside our city centers must be encouraged, driven, and supported. In this worthy endeavor, dynamic local government executives invariably play a pivotal role, and it is through their leadership, vision, and urban planning skills that their constituencies will have a hope for a better future, in their own towns and cities.

EDITOR'S NOTE

WASHING STATIONS

Since 2022, the RCM WASH Committee focused on assisting schools comply with the WASH in Schools Program of the Department of Education (DepEd). The Policy and Guidelines for the Comprehensive Water, Sanitation and Hygiene in Schools (WinS) Program was issued by the DepEd through DepEd Order 10, s. 2016. The DepEd acknowledges that lack of access to adequate water supply, insufficient toilet and proper handwashing facilities, and non-practice of hygiene behavior remain key contributors to hygiene and sanitation challenges. This led to the launching of the DepEd WinS Program.

Raoul C. Creencia
Editor-in-Chief, balita

WinS is truly a laudable school-based holistic program for personal health care and environmental sanitation through a set of standards for proper and correct health practices in schools. It seeks to promote correct hygiene and sanitation practices through hygiene and sanitation education and the provision of standards for safe water supply and appropriate sanitation facilities. Under the program, a school will be deemed compliant if it has a reliable water system that provides safe and sufficient water, especially for hand-washing and drinking; sufficient number of toilets for students and teachers that are private, safe, clean, and culturally and gender appropriate.

RCM can surely contribute and help selected schools in the National Capital Region comply with the requirements of the WinS Program, by helping provide the needed washing stations.

Today, the WASH Committee is scheduled to turn-over handwashing stations in two elementary schools in Tondo, Manila --- Lakandula and Francisco Benitez. The handwashing station for Lakandula Elementary School is designed for kindergarten students, while the one constructed for F. Benitez Elementary School is intended for Grade 5 to 6 students.

The turn-over program will incorporate a mini-orientation on handwashing protocols as well as best oral hygiene practices. The latter component was made possible because of the proactive and initiative of the Oral Hygiene Committee Chairman John Cutter, who has partnered with the WASH Committee. RCM is also joined in this worthy endeavor by the Rotaract Club of Manila and the Rotaract Club of DLSU.

Hopefully, Manila Rotarians can join and witness the turn-over ceremonies in the two schools today, February 15, at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Manila Rotarian Proclaimed Honorary Member of RC Barasoain

Rtn. Senen T. Mangalile speaks before the Rotary Club of Barasoain as its President, Carlo Pacifico U. Aniag looks on.

Rtn. Senen T. Mangalile was unanimously acclaimed by the President and Members of the Rotary Club of Barasoain as its Honorary Member after serving as Guest of Honor and Speaker at the Club's 21st Weekly Members Meeting on February 7th.

Acting on an impromptu motion from the floor, RC Barasoain President Carlo Pacifico U. Aniag approved the same and formally accepted Rtn Senen as the Club's second-ever Honorary Member, in the presence of its first, PDG Pacifico "Boy" Aniag of District 3770.

The proclamation followed Rtn. Senen's speech which traced his awareness and understanding of Rotary to his work in the early '90s as lay-out artist of club bulletins, souvenir programs and other publications of numerous Rotary clubs in District 3770 during the incumbency of PDG Boy. Rtn Senen declared that while he only recently became a member of RC Barasoain's grandmother club, he has always endeavored to apply the Four-Way Test and other Rotarian ideals during his 26 years of service as a diplomat, particularly in protecting the interests of Filipinos working and living abroad.

RC Barasoain is a daughter club of RC Malolos, which in turn is a daughter club of RC Manila. Incidentally, RC Malolos, assisted by all its daughter clubs in Bulacan, is preparing to celebrate its 75th anniversary this coming July, hopefully with the presence of a sizable delegation from its mother club.
