Area Medical Director
Pacific Asia
Abbott

DR. DIMAANO is the Area Medical Director for Pacific Asia at Abbott. He leads the medical affairs team who provides technical and scientific support to the nutrition business and facilitates engagements with healthcare professionals and customers across Pacific-Asia.

He joined Abbott in 2011 as the Head of the Medical, Regulatory Affairs, and Quality Assurance Department of its pharmaceutical business in the Philippines before assuming his current role.

Dr. Dimaano has more than 20 years' experience working in the field of public health, pharmaceutical medicine, and food and nutrition, spanning government, academic and industry settings.

Prior to Abbott, Dr. Dimaano held medical affairs roles at various multinational pharmaceutical companies since 2002. Before moving to the industry, he served the Philippine public health system through his participation in health education initiatives. He was part of the team that implemented the food fortification program under the Early Childhood Development Project of the Department of Health to address micronutrient deficiencies in Filipino children.

Guest Speaker

Dr. Dimaano was a contributing writer and editor for modules developed for the University of the Philippines College of Public Health (Health Emergency Management) and the Institute of Human Genetics (Newborn Screening Program) of the National Institutes of Health. He has written and contributed articles on health and nutrition in medical and trade publications. He served as a board member of the Philippine College of Pharmaceutical Medicine for more than 10 years.

He has also practiced as a primary care physician for a few years after obtaining his medical degree.

Dr. Dimaano completed his BS Basic Medical Sciences degree under the Integrated Arts & Medicine Program (an accelerated medical course) at the University of the Philippines College of Medicine and earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from the same university.

MALNUTRITION impacts one in three people globally, transcending age, region, and socioeconomic background. It is a silent crisis with devastating consequences—stunting children’s growth, impairing cognitive development, and weakening immunity. For adults, it reduces productivity and increases susceptibility to chronic diseases. As malnutrition continues to hinder progress toward global health equity, urgent action is needed.

Recognizing this critical issue, Abbott Laboratories and the Rotary Club of Manila (RCM) are launching a groundbreaking initiative to address malnutrition in Metro Manila. This collaboration, formalized through a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to be signed on November 28, 2024, at the Manila Polo Club, marks a significant step toward tackling malnutrition at its roots in underserved communities.

The program, a blend of malnutrition screening and nutrition education, aims to empower families with knowledge while identifying those in need of intervention. By combining Abbott’s global expertise in healthcare innovation with RCM’s commitment to service, the initiative aspires to create lasting, positive health outcomes.

At the heart of this effort is Dr. Jose Rodolfo V. Dimaano, Jr., Nutrition Medical Director for Asia Pacific at Abbott, whose leadership in the fight against malnutrition has been pivotal. Dr. Dimaano will share insights on Abbott’s ongoing global mission and the impactful work of the Center for Malnutrition Solutions. This center serves as a beacon for addressing malnutrition worldwide, leveraging science to develop practical and scalable solutions.

This partnership is a call to action—a reminder that no one should be left behind in the fight for health and well-being. By joining forces, Abbott and RCM exemplify what can be achieved through shared purpose and collaboration.

As we gather to witness the launch of this initiative, let us commit to addressing malnutrition not just as a health crisis but as a moral imperative. Together, we can turn the tide, one community at a time.

THE Rotary Club of Manila convened its 15th Weekly Membership Meeting for the Rotary Year 2024-2025 at the prestigious Manila Polo Club. Moderated by Director-Elect Albert "Hans" C. Palacios, the event brought together Rotarians and distinguished guests for an afternoon of fellowship, reflection, and insight.

Program Highlights

The meeting began with registration, followed by the Call to Order by President Jujut Enriquez. The opening formalities included an invocation led by Rotarian John Nico "Nico" P. Valencia, an Audio-Visual Presentation of the Philippine National Anthem, and a rendition of the Rotary Club of Manila Hymn performed by the RCM World Famous Music Chorale.

Rotarian Michael Raymond “Micray” L. Gonzales delivered the Four-Way Test, emphasizing the core principles of Rotary. Director-Elect Albert “Hans” C. Palacios then acknowledged guests, and the RCM World Famous Music Chorale performed a Welcome Song. The Club also celebrated the birthday of Past District Governor Vince Carlos (November 19), serenading him with the "Maligayang Bati / Happy Birthday Song."

Featured Address by Governor Luis "Chavit" Singson

District Governor Joaquin "Jackie" Rodriguez introduced the guest speaker, former Ilocos Sur Governor Luis Crisologo "Chavit" Singson. Governor Singson, known for his transformative leadership and business acumen, captivated the audience with an inspiring and candid account of his life, achievements, and vision for the Philippines.

DG Joaquin "Jackie" Rodriguez, Sr. introduced the guest speaker, former Ilocos Sur Governor Luis Crisologo "Chavit" Singson.

"It is a great honor to be here today," began Governor Chavit Singson, addressing the Rotarians. "Thank you for inviting me to share my journey and thoughts."

Governor Singson reflected on his long career in public service. "I have served as Governor of Ilocos Sur for many years, later becoming Mayor, and even a Councilor. At various points, I also held leadership roles in the Governors' League, Mayors' League, and the Councilors' League of the Philippines. My career in public service has been marked by challenges, but also by many successes. When I first became Governor, Ilocos Sur was known as the most notorious province in the country. Political killings were rampant, and a private army ruled. It was a place of fear, poverty, and violence."

Guest speaker former Ilocos Sur Governor Luis Crisologo "Chavit" Singson

He detailed the steps he took to transform the province. "I worked hard to eliminate the influence of private armies and reduce graft and corruption. Over time, Ilocos Sur transitioned from being one of the poorest provinces to the fifth richest in the Philippines. It was not an easy journey, but it was worth it. Today, our province is peaceful, prosperous, and open for business."

Governor Singson's commitment to fighting corruption extended beyond his province. "When I led the Mayors' League, it was riddled with graft. By the time I left, not only was it free of corruption, but I had also left 40 million pesos in cash. Similarly, when I chaired the Councilors' League, I left behind 100 million pesos. These experiences taught me that leadership is about integrity and action. My father's advice—'Always keep your word or lose your credibility'—has guided me throughout my life."

Shifting to his entrepreneurial endeavors, Governor Singson shared anecdotes from his youth. “I grew up working in my family’s businesses, selling peanuts and soft drinks in movie theaters, despite my mother’s objections. Later, I worked at a tobacco redrying plant, which set the foundation for my first major venture—tobacco trading. I innovated by sourcing tobacco directly from farmers, which allowed me to build a thriving business. It was through these ventures that I earned my first billion pesos.”

His business ventures eventually expanded to include electric vehicles, aviation, and economic zones. “In South Korea, I own two economic zones and collaborate with major companies like Daewoo. Here in the Philippines, I am working to establish an economic zone in Ilocos Sur. This has been a dream for decades, but approval has been delayed by the Senate. This is one of the reasons I’m considering another run for public office—to finally see this dream come to life.”

Governor Singson also spoke about his philanthropic projects, including financing the modernization of Philippine jeepneys. “The old jeepneys pollute the environment and lack air-conditioning. I’ve committed to funding new, electric jeepneys with no down payment and zero interest. This project is not about profit—it’s about giving back. As I often say, money is not yours until you spend it. Life is short; enjoy it while you can.”

In closing, Governor Singson reflected on the values imparted by his parents. “My father taught me to honor my word, and my mother taught me the importance of diversification. These lessons have shaped who I am today. To the Rotarians here, I urge you to stay committed to service and integrity. Together, we can create a brighter future for the Philippines.”

Following his speech, Governor Singson engaged with the audience in an open forum, answering questions about his projects, political insights, and personal philosophies.

Mr. Luis “Chavit” Singson engaged in an interactive conversation with PD Oscar Del Rosario, Rtn. Isidro “Butch” Alcantara, PSAA Bolle Bolton, and Pres. Gary Jay Maramag (RC Quiapo, Plaza Miranda).

President Jujut Enriquez presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Governor Singson for his inspiring address. The meeting concluded at 2:00 PM, leaving attendees motivated to carry forward Rotary's mission of service above self.

Mr. Luis "Chavit" Singson received RCM's Plaque of Appreciation, witnessed by PE Raoul Creencia, Rtn. Francisco "Paco" Magsaysay, Pres. Jujut Enriquez, Rtn. Raymond Davis, PD Oscar "Oca" Del Rosario, and Program Chair Carlos "Caloy" Serapio.

Pres. Jujut Enriquez adjourned the meeting.

RI's ANNUAL PRESIDENTIAL THEMES

LAST week, I featured the various notable RI Presidential themes over the years — Be a Gift to the World. Lead the Way. Goodwill Begins with You. Be the Inspiration. Create hope in the World. You are the Key. Kindle the Spark Within. Take Time to Serve. Be a Friend. Lend a Hand. Make Dreams Real. Serve to Change Lives. Sow the Seed of Love. Peace Through Service. Create Awareness – Take Action. Notably, Rotary International is planning to discontinue this tradition of annual presidential themes in the next Rotary year. RI President Stephanie Urchick has announced that her theme, The Magic of Rotary, will be the final one in this longstanding tradition, which began in 1949-1950. To recall, it was in 1949 when RI President Percy C. Hodgson announced his 83-word theme, which included a list of four objectives. Since then, RI Presidents adopted shorter themes that evolved over the years.

The initiative to put an end to this 66-year-old tradition reflects the on-going discussions within Rotary about focusing more on continuity rather than yearly thematic shifts. This also shows that RI now aims to maintain its strategic priorities while ensuring that Rotary clubs worldwide continue to engage in meaningful service and outreach without the structure of annual themes. I personally welcome RI's move or plan to discontinue this tradition, as this will keep the focus on Rotary's values and overarching motto: service above self. It will also pave the way for a much shorter, no add-ons, and no-frills title for Club Presidents. In other words, there will no longer be any unnecessary adjective to further describe the presidents of the Rotary Clubs.

On November 30, our very own Anton Mauricio will officially end his stint as General Manager of the government's investment arm, the National Development Corporation (NDC). Serving with the rank of Undersecretary, DIS Anton competently took the helm of NDC and paved the way for various innovative reforms and trailblazing initiatives. Rendering public service in any capacity is surely one of the meaningful contributions that a citizen of this country can offer. Anton, who has been in the private sector all his life, did exactly that; and for sure, he will always look back to his NDC General Manager stint as a chapter of personal and professional growth and fulfillment. Well done and welcome back, Anton!

Congratulations to DG Jackie Rodriguez for successfully mounting a nationwide Alay Lakad activity last Sunday, November 24. Your hardwork and earnest efforts truly paid off. Hats off, too, to the Manila Rotarians led by President Jujut and Chair/AS Arik Carranceja, who participated in this milestone event.

ROTARIANS ON ALAY LAKAD

BusinessMirror · November 25, 2024 · 1 minute read

The Rotary Club of Manila (RCM) on Sunday morning joined the Alay Lakad 2024, the annual walk-for-a-cause that for decades has raised funds for the Filipino youth.

The first Rotary Club in Asia came out in full force for the early morning walk on Roxas Boulevard in Manila.

The Rotarians held walks in 32 locations all over the country, and RCM officials said this was the largest walk ever.

THE FOUR-WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

- I. Is it the TRUTH?
- II. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- III. Will it build GOODWILL & BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
- IV. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
