AS the Christmas season draws near, a profound sense of joy, hope, and giving envelops communities around the world. For the Rotary Club of Manila, the Philippines' first and Asia's oldest Rotary Club, this time of year transcends mere festivity—it becomes a testament to service, fellowship, and the enduring commitment to uplift humanity.

Since its establishment in 1919, the Rotary Club of Manila has been a beacon of leadership and compassion. It has consistently embodied Rotary International's motto, "Service Above Self," by addressing the most pressing challenges faced by communities. Christmas, in particular, amplifies this mission, providing an opportune moment for Rotarians to unite in the spirit of generosity, extending a helping hand to the marginalized and forgotten.

At the heart of the Christmas season lies the act of giving, a principle deeply embedded in Rotary's DNA. The Rotary Club of Manila embraces this through numerous outreach programs during the holiday season. From feeding programs for the underprivileged to distributing gifts to children in orphanages, the club ensures that the true essence of Christmas—love and sharing—reaches those who need it most.

In a city where social inequality remains a challenge, the club's Christmas initiatives are a source of hope for many. Its members understand that while holiday decorations may light up the streets of Manila, it is acts of kindness that truly illuminate lives. Each gift given, each meal served, and each smile shared becomes a reminder that the season's real magic lies in compassion.

Christmas is also a time for reflection and fellowship, and the Rotary Club of Manila thrives on the camaraderie among its members. Year-end gatherings, often infused with warmth, music, and laughter, are more than mere celebrations—they are opportunities to strengthen the bonds of friendship and renew the shared commitment to service.

These moments remind Rotarians that the work they do is not a solitary endeavor but a collective mission driven by shared values. In the spirit of Christmas, this unity is magnified, inspiring members to carry their efforts into the new year with renewed vigor and purpose.

The Rotary Club of Manila has long been a trailblazer, setting benchmarks for service projects and inspiring other Rotary Clubs across the nation and beyond. This Christmas, its leadership resonates even more profoundly as it aligns with Rotary's enduring vision: a world where people unite to create lasting change.

The club's initiatives during this season serve as a testament to its legacy. Whether through scholarships for deserving students, medical missions, or disaster relief efforts, the Rotary Club of Manila exemplifies how the Christmas spirit can translate into tangible, transformative action.

While Christmas is a time of joy, it is also a season for introspection. For Rotarians, it offers an opportunity to reflect on the year that has passed—the challenges faced, the lives touched, and the goals achieved. It is a time to remember that service is not confined to a single season but is a continuous journey that transcends holidays and calendar years.

As the Rotary Club of Manila ushers in the Christmas season, it renews its commitment to its mission. The challenges of poverty, inequality, and climate change may seem insurmountable at times, but as Rotarians gather to celebrate, they are reminded of the power of collective action and the enduring truth that even small acts of kindness can create ripples of change.

Christmas is a season of hope, and the Rotary Club of Manila serves as its herald. In every project it undertakes and every life it touches, the club reminds us that hope is not merely a sentiment but a call to action. This Christmas, as lights adorn the streets of Manila and carols fill the air, let us be inspired by the Rotary Club of Manila's example.

May we all find ways to serve, to give, and to love, not just during the Christmas season but every day of the year. In the words of Rotary founder Paul Harris, "Whatever Rotary may mean to us, to the world it will be known by the results it achieves." This Christmas, the Rotary Club of Manila reminds us that the results of love, compassion, and service are the greatest gifts we can offer — and receive.

Merry Christmas to all Rotarians and the communities they serve! May the season's blessings inspire us to build a brighter, kinder, and more inclusive world.

U.S.-Philippine Relations in a VUCA World

THE Rotary Club of Manila (RCM), Asia's oldest and most prestigious Rotary Club, hosted its 17th Weekly Membership Meeting in grand style on Thursday, December 5, 2024. Held at the Manila Polo Club, the event was a remarkable convergence of camaraderie, service, and diplomacy. The distinguished gathering, moderated by Past District Governor Vicente "Vince" J. Carlos, highlighted RCM's unwavering dedication to fostering meaningful relationships and impactful initiatives.

A Warm Welcome to an Esteemed Guest

The highlight of the meeting was the arrival of Her Excellency MaryKay L. Carlson, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America to the Philippines. Welcoming the Ambassador at 12:15 PM was an entourage of RCM's eminent leaders, including District Governor Jackie Rodriguez, RCM President Jujut Enriquez, Past District Governors Obet Pagdanganan, Rudy Bediones, and Alex Cureg, as well as RCM Foundation, Inc. (RCMFI) Chairman Reggie Yu. Adding a special touch to the occasion, the Santiago Trillana Academy Concert Chorus rendered a heartfelt welcome serenade, setting an uplifting tone for the day.

PDG Vicente "Vince" J. Carlos moderated the meeting.

A Celebration of Milestones and Fellowship

The meeting officially commenced with President Jujut Enriquez calling the assembly to order, followed by an inspiring invocation delivered by Rotarian Carlos "Caloy" G. Serapio. The audience joined in the singing of the Philippine National Anthem, presented through an audiovisual tribute featuring RCM members. Rotarian Ambassador Victor "Vic" Garcia III then led the recitation of Rotary's Four-Way Test, reminding everyone of the ethical principles that guide their endeavors.

Rtn. Carlos "Caloy" G. Serapio led the invocation.

Rotary Members and guests took a position of respect as they sang the United States of America and Philippine National Anthem.

Acknowledgment of distinguished guests and December birthday celebrants further enlivened the program, with the RCM World Famous Music Chorale delivering a joyful rendition of the welcome and birthday songs.

Rtn. Victor "Vic" Garcia III led the recitation of Rotary's Four-Way Test.

President's Time: Reports and New Beginnings

During his address, President Enriquez provided updates on several key initiatives:

- The success of the Special Education (SPED) project.
- Past Director Issam's participation in the 55th Anniversary Fundraising Ball of the Kowloon East Chapter.
- The induction of two new members into the RCM family.

The new members—Joaquin L. Arambulo, Executive Director and Founder of a business and technology consultancy, and Stefan Yordanov, President of Finance & VP for Strategy at Lufthansa Technik Philippines, Inc.—represent diverse industries, reflecting RCM's commitment to inclusivity and excellence.

Mr. Stefan Yordanov (far left) and Mr. Joaquin L. Arambulo (second from left) were officially sworn in as new members of RCM, with their oaths administered by President Jujut Enriquez.

STAR Rotarian Joaquin L. Arambulo was proudly presented with his Rotary pin by PVP Reggie Yu, on behalf of his proposer, PP Archit Bartolome.

STAR Rtn. Stefan Yordanov was officially presented with his Rotary name tag by his proposer, Pres. Jujut Enriquez.

STAR Rotarian Stefan Yordanov presented the Bulgarian flag as part of the Rotary Club of Manila's tradition of "Flag Presentation." This practice is observed whenever a new foreign member, representing a country being added for the first time, is inducted as a new member.

Her Excellency MaryKay Carlson: Championing U.S.-Philippine Relations

The centerpiece of the event was the keynote address by Ambassador MaryKay Carlson, introduced by Past Vice-President Fausto D.R. Preysler, Jr. In her speech titled "U.S.-Philippine Relations in a Volatile, Uncertain, Complex, and Ambiguous World," Ambassador Carlson eloquently underscored the enduring partnership between the two nations.

PVP Fausto D.R. Preysler, Jr. introduced the guest of honor and speaker.

Reflecting on the 73-year-old alliance, she highlighted its significance in promoting regional peace and security, particularly through the Mutual Defense Treaty, Visiting Forces Agreement, and Enhanced Defense Cooperation Agreement. She further discussed recent advancements, such as the Bilateral Defense Guidelines and the Luzon Economic Corridor initiative, which collectively strengthen the partnership in both security and economic spheres.

Guest of honor and speaker Her Excellency MaryKay L. Carlson, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the United States of America to the Philippines

Ambassador Carlson praised the Filipino people's resilience, ingenuity, and warmth, sharing personal anecdotes that illustrated the depth of the U.S.-Philippines connection. Her closing remarks emphasized the importance of nurturing such relationships in today's complex global environment.

Engagement and Appreciation

The open forum following the speech allowed RCM members to engage with Ambassador Carlson, exchanging ideas on enhancing bilateral ties. The event concluded with an appreciation song by the Santiago Trillana Academy Concert Chorus and the presentation of a Certificate of Appreciation to Ambassador Carlson by President Enriquez.

Ambassador MaryKay Carlson engaged in an interactive conversation with PP Pauli Barbara (RC of Weimar, Germany), PD Amading Valdez, Mr. Art Valdez, PD Beda Fajardo, Rtn. Gani Macatoman, PD Hans Palacios, Rtn. Cris Acosta, SAA Jason Bogovich, and PD Tony Lopez.

A Closing of Unity and Purpose

As the meeting adjourned at 2:00 PM, attendees departed with a renewed sense of commitment to Rotary's mission of "Service Above Self." The day was a testament to the power of collaboration, the importance of international friendship, and the vibrant legacy of the Rotary Club of Manila.

Through this gathering, RCM reaffirmed its role as a catalyst for meaningful dialogue and impactful action, ensuring that its contributions resonate far beyond the Rotary community.

Pres. Jujut Enriquez adjourned the meeting.

CHRISTMAS SWEATERS

I vividly recall a scene in the 2001 movie Bridget Jones's Diary where Colin Firth's character (Mark Darcy) turns to greet Bridget (Renée Zellweger) at a family gathering wearing an unattractive knitted garment featuring a giant red-nosed reindeer. Bridget was visibly petrified at the gaudy attire. I remember telling myself: I will never wear something like that! Just like Bridget, I also somehow recoiled at Darcy's outfit. Notably, other Hollywood movies such as National Lampoon's Christmas Vacation and The Night Before also featured the outrageous, ugly and garish Christmas sweater. In time, this fashion faux pas was transformed into a globally accepted way of bringing joy and laughter to holiday celebrations.

I happily note that this quirky trend has been adopted in this year's RCM Christmas party. Indeed, it is a welcome and brilliant theme. I must confess though that, as I write this, I still do not have a Christmas sweater to wear to the party. While I told myself in 2001 that I will never wear such a festive eyesore, I am actually happily conceding that it will indeed be fun and humorous to wear such a sweater in our club gathering. I just hope I will still be able to grab one.

It was in the 1950s when Christmas-themed pull-overs started making an appearance. These ugly Christmas sweaters were then referred to as "Jingle Bell Sweaters," and at that time, they were reportedly not as garish as today's iterations. It was thus when Bridget began cringing on Darci's sweater that parties featuring this outfit started kicking off. This year, we will be experiencing this trend as we are all encouraged to wear something ridiculous and fun. I look forward to seeing members embrace this social phenomenon, and personally think that the more contemporary holiday sweater designs are actually cute and creative. Indeed, in the present day, the ugly Christmas sweater has become such a cherished Christmas tradition that celebrates tackiness in a new light – all aimed at eliciting good laughter and pure fun.

The perfect and most precious Christmas gift that we can give to our Club and to each other is Time. When we give our time, we bestow a little of ourselves and a part of our lives to someone else. In fact, there is no denying that Time in the service of others is what defines all Rotarians. Hence, in this Christmas season, let us give (and continue giving) the precious gift of Time to our Club (to its activities and projects) and to each other. Let us celebrate this Christmas in the true Rotarian spirit of service and fellowship.
Merry Christmas to all!
